(2) A hearing examiner, agency head, or member of the agency head shall voluntarily disqualify himself and withdraw from any case in which he cannot afford a fair and impartial hearing or consideration. Any party may request the disqualification of a hearing examiner, agency head, or member of the agency head by filing an affidavit, prior to the taking of evidence in an adjudicatory proceeding, stating the particular grounds upon which he claims that a fair and impartial hearing cannot be accorded. (3) The rules of evidence as applied in civil cases shall be followed. When necessary to ascertain facts which cannot otherwise be proved, evidence not admissible under the rules applied in civil cases may be admitted if it is of the type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent men in the conduct of their affairs. Hearsay evidence may be used for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence, but it shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding unless it would be admissible over objection in civil actions.

(4) All testimony of parties and witnesses shall be made under oath, and any part of the evidence may be received by depositions.

(5) The general provisions governing depositions and discovery as set forth in Rules 26.01 to 37.05 of the rules of civil procedure shall be followed.

(7) Objections to evidentiary offers may be made by any party and shall be noted in the record.

(8) The hearing examiner or agency head may take official notice of facts which are indisputable and of generally recognized technical or scientific facts within the agency's specialized knowledge. All parties shall be given an opportunity to contest technical or scientific facts officially noticed.

SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 13 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

When a subpoena is disobeyed, any party may apply to the Circuit Court of the district in which the adjudicatory proceeding is held for an order requiring obedience. Failure to comply with an order of the court shall be cause for punishment as a contempt of the court.

(2) Witnesses shall be entitled to compensation as witnesses under KRS 421.010, and each party shall pay the cost of its subpoenas and the compensation of its witnesses.

(2) If an extension of time is needed by the hearing examiner to complete and submit his recommendation to the agency head, the hearing examiner shall show good cause to the agency head, in writing, and based upon substantial proof, that an extension of time is needed.

(3) If the agency head, after a showing of good cause, grants the hearing examiner an extension of time, it shall:

(a) not exceed thirty (30) days from the date the extension was granted;

(b) be included in the record of the adjudicatory proceeding.

(4) In making the final order, the agency head shall consider the whole record or such portions of the record as may be cited by the parties.

(5) The agency head may accept the recommendation of the hearing examiner and adopt it as the agency's final order, or he may reject or modify all or part of the recommendation. If the agency head rejects or modifies any part of the recommendation, he shall state with particularity in the final order his reasons for the rejection or modification.

(3) A declaratory order shall bind the agency and all parties to the proceedings on the state of facts alleged, and a declaratory order rendered by an agency shall be a defense in subsequent charges against the person who requested the order and who acted in reliance on it in good faith, unless:

(a) material facts were intentionally omitted or misstated by the person in requesting the order; or

(b) the order is altered or set aside by a court upon review under Section 18 of this Act.

Agencies may utilize hearing examiners employed by other agencies with the consent of the employing agency.

(3) Hearing examiners shall perform no duties inconsistent with their duties as hearing examiners. An agency head or a member of an agency head who conducts a hearing may participate in the formulation of the agency's final order in the adjudicatory proceeding if he has completed all of his duties as hearing examiner.

(4) All hearing examiners shall be included within the classified service to which KRS 18.110 to 18.360 applies, unless they:

SECTION 15. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 13 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The Executive Department for Finance and Administration may employ one or more hearing examiners for assignment to the individual agencies at their request, for the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings. (2) The Executive Department for Finance and Administration shall charge each agency a reasonable amount for administrative services provided by subsection (1) of this section.

SECTION 16. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 13 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(2) No party, representative of a party, or agency member engaged in advocating, investigating or prosecuting in connection with an adjudicatory proceeding shall communicate off the record any information on the merits of any substantive or procedural issue in the case with any hearing examiner, member of an agency head or agency head participating in the adjudicatory proceeding.

(3) Any communication prohibited by subsections (1) or (2) of this section shall constitute grounds for the reversal or modification of the agency's final order upon judicial review in accordance with Section 18 of this Act.

SECTION 17. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 13 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Each agency may promulgate, according to KRS 13.075 through 13.125, regulations not inconsistent with this Act governing the procedures for scheduling and conducting adjudicatory proceedings.

(2) Upon application of any agency, the Administrative Regulations Review Subcommittee may exempt any agency from one or more requirements of this Act when:

(a) The agency head certifies that the requirement would conflict with any provision of federal law or regulation with which the agency must comply, or with any federal law or regulation with which the agency must comply to permit the agency or persons within the Commonwealth to receive federal tax benefits or federal funds or other benefits;

(b) The Administrative Regulations Review Subcommittee finds that conformity with the requirement of this Act from which exemption is sought would be so inconvenient or so impractical as to deny due process and cause undue delay in adjudicatory proceedings.

(3) The Administrative Regulations Review Subcommittee shall not exempt an agency from any requirement of this Act until the agency establishes alternative procedures, by regulation, which insofar as practical shall be consistent with the intent and purpose of this Act.

SECTION 18. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 13 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Copies of the petition shall be served upon the agency and all parties of record.

(3) The filing of the petition does not itself stay enforcement of the agency's final order. The agency may grant, or for good cause the reviewing court may order, a stay upon appropriate terms.

(4) Within twenty (20) days after the service of the petition, or within further time allowed by the court, the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings the record may be shortened. A party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent correction or additions to the record.

(5) If, before the date set for hearing, application is made to the court for leave to present additional evidence, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were good reasons for failure to present it at the adjudicatory proceeding, the court may order that the additional evidence be taken before the agency upon conditions determined by the court. The agency may modify its findings and final order by reason of the additional evidence and shall file that evidence and any modifications, new findings, or orders with the reviewing court.

(6) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be confined to the record. The court, upon request, may hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(7) The court shall not substitute its judgment for that of the agency as to the weight of the evidence on questions of fact. The court may affirm the final order of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings. The court may enjoin, suspend, reverse or modify the final order if substantial rights of the appellant have been prejudiced because the agency's actions, findings, inferences, conclusions, or final orders are:

(a) in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions;

(b) in excess of the statutory authority of the agency;

(c) made upon unlawful procedure;

(d) affected by other error of law;

(e) clearly without support of substantial evidence on the whole record;

(f) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion;

Such a license or licenses shall be secured on or before July 1 of each year, and each licensee shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each such year or portion thereof for which such license is secured.

(8) The department may by regulation require any person licensed under the provisions of this section to supply such information concerning his business, sales or any privilege exercised, as is deemed reasonably necessary for the regulation of such licensees, and to protect the revenues of the state. Failure on the part of such licensee to comply with the provisions of KRS 138.130 to 138.205 or any regulations promulgated thereunder, or to permit an inspection of premises, machines or vehicles by an authorized agent of the department at any reasonable time shall be grounds for the revocation of any license issued by the department, after due notice and a hearing by the department in accordance with this Act. The commissioner of revenue may assign a time and place for such hearing and may appoint an examiner a conferee who shall conduct a hearing, receive evidence and hear arguments. Such examiner conferee shall thereupon file a report with the commissioner together with a recommendation as to the revocation of such license. (2) If the dealer or transporter is a corporation organized under the laws of another state, it shall file with its application a certified copy of the certificate or license issued by the secretary of state of this state showing that the corporation is authorized to transact business in this state.

(3) At the time of filing application for a license, a bond of the character stipulated and in the amount provided for in KRS 138.330 shall be filed with the department. No license shall be issued upon any application unless accompanied by this bond.

(4) If application for such a license is filed by any person whose license has at any time previously been canceled for cause by the department, or if the department is of the opinion that the application is not filed in good faith, or that the application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration has previously been canceled for cause by the department, the department may, after a hearing in accordance with this Act, of which the applicant has been given five (5) days' notice in writing, and in which the applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, refuse to issue a license to that person.

(5) The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, and the bond having been accepted and approved, the department shall issue to the applicant a license, subject to cancellation as provided by KRS 138.340. The license shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of the dealer in this state.

(6) The department shall keep and file all applications and bonds, with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all licensed dealers or transporters. The department shall publish and keep currently up to date a list of licensed dealers and transporters, and transmit a copy of list and all revisions thereof to all licensed dealers and transporters.

Section 43. KRS 138.330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every dealer or transporter required to be licensed under KRS 138.310 shall file with the department of revenue a bond, issued by a corporation authorized to do surety business in Kentucky, in an amount not to exceed three (3) months' estimated liability as computed by the department or five thousand dollars ($5,000) whichever is greater, or in the case of a new licensee in the minimum amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) until such time as an estimated three (3) months' liability can be established, provided that the maximum amount of any such bond may be reduced to an amount sufficient in the opinion of the department, considering the financial rating and reputation of the company, to insure payment to the department of the amount of tax, penalties and interest for which the dealer or transporter may become liable. The bond shall be on a form and with a surety approved by the department. The dealer or transporter shall be the principal obligor and the state the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports by the dealer and transporter and the payment by the dealer to the state treasurer of all gasoline excise taxes now or hereafter imposed by the state, together with all penalties and interest thereon, and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 138.210 to 138.340.

(2) If liability upon the bond is discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the department any surety on the bond has become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the department may require the licensee to file a new bond with satisfactory sureties in the same amount, failing which the department shall forthwith cancel the license of such licensee. If a new bond is furnished as provided above, the department shall cancel and surrender the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

(3) If upon hearing in accordance with this Act, of which the licensee shall be given five (5) days' notice in writing, the department decides that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to the state of the amount of tax, penalties and interest for which the licensee is or may become liable, said licensee shall forthwith, upon the written demand of the department, file an additional bond in the same manner and form with a surety thereon approved by the department, in any amount determined by the department to be necessary, failing which the department shall forthwith cancel the license of the licensee.

(4) Any surety on a bond furnished as required by this section shall be released from all liability to the state accruing on such bond after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date upon which the surety has lodged with the department a written request to be released, but this request shall not operate to release the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period. The department shall promptly, upon receipt of such request, notify the licensee who furnished the bond, and unless said licensee, before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, files with the department a new bond with a surety satisfactory to the department in the amount and form hereinbefore provided, the department shall forthwith cancel the license of the licensee. If approved new bond is furnished the department shall cancel and surrender the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

Section 44. KRS 138.340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If any dealer or transporter required to be licensed under KRS 138.310 files a false monthly report of the data or information required by KRS 138.220 to 138.280, or fails, refuses or neglects to file the monthly report required by those sections, even though no tax is due, or to pay the full amount of tax as required by those sections, or fails to meet the qualifications of a dealer as set out in KRS 138.210 (2), or violates any other provision of this chapter, said dealer or transporter may be cited by the department of revenue to show cause at a public hearing before the Kentucky board of tax appeals why his license should not be revoked. The notice given for and conduct of such hearing shall be as provided in KRS Chapter 131. Such licensee shall be notified by registered letter or summons. The letter or summons shall apprise the licensee of the charge or charges made against him and he shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard before his license may be revoked. The summons may be served in the same manner and by the same officers or persons as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure, or it may be served in said manner by an employe of the department of revenue. The hearing shall be set at least five (5) days after the summons is served or the letter delivered. Any aggrieved licensee may appeal from an order of revocation of the Kentucky board of tax appeals as provided by KRS Chapter 131 law, subject to the condition that the licensee has made bond sufficient in the opinion of the department of revenue to protect the commonwealth from loss of revenue .

(2) The department is hereby given the power to cancel the license upon request in writing from licensee such cancellation to become effective sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of the request. But no license shall be canceled upon the request of any licensee until and unless said licensee, prior to the date of such cancellation, pays to the state all excise taxes payable under the laws of the state together with any and all penalties and fines accruing by reason of any failure on the part of such licensee to make accurate reports as required or pay such taxes and penalties.

Section 45. KRS 138.355 is amended to read as follows:

If the department reasonably believes that any dealer or refund permit holder has been guilty of a violation of KRS 138.343 to 138.355, which would subject the dealer or permit holder to a suspension or revocation of his license or permit under the provisions of subsections (2), (3) or (4) of KRS 138.354, said dealer or permit holder may be cited by the department to show cause at a public hearing before the department of revenue why his license or permit should not be suspended or revoked. The dealer or refund permit holder shall be notified in accordance with this Act by registered letter. The letter shall inform the dealer or refund permit holder of the charge or charges made against him and he shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard before his license or permit may be revoked or suspended. The hearing shall be set and conducted in accordance with this Act at least five (5) days after the receipt of the letter . Any aggrieved dealer or refund permit holder may appeal any order entered to the Kentucky board of tax appeals as provided by law , subject to the condition that he make bond sufficient in the opinion of the department to protect the commonwealth from loss of revenue .

Section 46. KRS 138.550 is amended to read as follows:

In addition to all other penalties provided in KRS 138.510 to 138.540, when the pari-mutuel system of betting is operated at a track licensed under the provisions of KRS 137.170, said license may be suspended, revoked or renewal refused by the state racing commission, after hearing in accordance with this Act upon the failure of the operator to comply with the provisions of KRS 138.510 to 138.540 or the rules and regulations promulgated by the department of revenue pursuant thereto even though the pari-mutuel system of betting and the track are operated by different persons, corporations or associations.

Section 47. KRS 138.570 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A license shall be required of each special fuels dealer and each special fuels user-seller.

(3) Concurrently with the filing of an application for a license, the special fuels dealer shall file with the department a bond as required under KRS 138.575. No license shall be issued to any person unless such person has furnished a bond as provided in KRS 138.575 to secure payment of taxes, penalties and interest imposed by KRS 138.560 to 138.640. No bond shall be filed with an application for special fuels user-seller license.

(4) The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the bond, if required, having been accepted and approved and the other conditions and requirements of this section having been complied with, the department shall issue a license. However, if an application for a license is filed by any person whose license has at any time previously been revoked for cause by the department, or if the department is of the opinion that the person who makes the application as a subterfuge for the real party in interest whose license, prior to the time of filing the application, has been revoked for cause, or that the application is not for any other reason filed in good faith or is not for sufficient cause, the department may, after a hearing in accordance with this Act, of which the applicant shall be given ten (10) days' notice in writing and in which he shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, refuse to issue a license to that person.

(5) All licenses shall be valid and remain in full force and effect until suspended or revoked for cause or otherwise canceled.

(6) A license shall not be assignable or transferable and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued.

(7) The department shall keep and file all applications and bonds, with an alphabetical index thereof.

Section 48. KRS 138.575 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every special fuels dealer shall file with the department a corporate bond, cash bond or securities approved by the department in a minimum amount of $500 and in a maximum amount of four (4) months' liability for taxes imposed under KRS 138.560 to 138.640 but not to exceed $50,000. If however, a special fuels dealer is bonded as provided in KRS 138.330 the department may waive the bonding requirement in this section provided a rider is attached to such bond to guarantee payment of all special fuels taxes together with all penalties and interest thereon and secure faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 138.560 to 138.640.

The applicant for a license shall be the principal obligor and this state shall be the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the licensee to the department of all taxes levied under KRS 138.560 to 138.640, together with all penalties and interest thereon and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 138.560 to 138.640.

(2) If the liability upon the bond is discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made, or otherwise or if in the opinion of the department any surety has become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the department may require the licensee to file a new bond with satisfactory surety in the same form and amount, failing which the department shall forthwith cancel the license. If a new bond is furnished by the licensee as above provided, the department shall cancel the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

(3) If upon hearing in accordance with this Act, of which the licensee shall be given ten (10) days' notice in writing, the department decides that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to this state of the amount of the tax, penalties and interest for which the licensee is or may become liable, the licensee shall forthwith, upon the written demand of the department, file an additional bond in the same manner and form with surety thereon approved by the department, in any amount determined by the department to be necessary, failing which the department shall forthwith cancel the license.

(4) Any surety on a bond furnished by a licensee shall be released from all liability to this state accruing on such bond after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date upon which the surety has lodged with the department a written request to be released, but this request shall not operate to release the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period. The department shall promptly on the receipt of the request, notify the licensee who furnished the bond, and unless the licensee shall, before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, file with the department a new bond with surety satisfactory to the department in the amount and form hereinbefore provided, the department shall forthwith cancel the license. If the new bond is furnished by the licensee as above provided, the department shall cancel the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

Section 49. KRS 138.580 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If a licensee at any time files a false monthly report of the information required, or fails or refuses to file the monthly report or to pay the full amount of the tax or violates any other provision of KRS 138.560 to 138.640, inclusive, without a showing that such failure was due to reasonable cause, the department may, subject to the provisions of this Act, cancel the license and suspend the privilege of acting as a special fuels dealer.

(2) Upon voluntary surrender of the license or upon receipt of a written request by a licensee, the department may cancel his license, effective sixty (60) days from the date of request, but no such license shall be canceled upon surrender or request unless the licensee has, prior to the date of cancellation, paid to this state all taxes, penalties, interest and fines that are due or have accrued, and unless the licensee has surrendered to the department his license.

(3) If upon investigation the department ascertains that any person to whom a license has been issued is no longer engaged as a special fuels dealer or special fuels user-seller, and has not been so engaged for a period of six (6) months, the department may cancel such license in accordance with this Act, by giving the person sixty (60) days' notice of cancellation, mailed to his last known address, in which event the license shall be surrendered to the department.

(4) Whenever a licensee ceases to engage in business within this state, he shall notify the department in writing within fifteen (15) days after discontinuance. All taxes that have accrued under KRS 138.560 to 138.640, inclusive, whether or not then due, shall become due and payable concurrently with such discontinuance. The licensee shall make a report and pay all such taxes and any interest and penalties thereon, and shall surrender to the department his license.

(5) If the license is canceled by the department as provided in this section, and if the licensee has paid to this state all taxes, interest and penalties due under KRS 138.560 to 138.640 and 138.990, the department shall cancel the bond filed by the licensee.

Section 50. KRS 138.645 is amended to read as follows:

Any gasoline dealer or special fuels dealer having a license revoked for the violation of any of the provisions contained in KRS 138.340 or KRS 138.580 may within the discretion of the department, and after proceedings in accordance with this Act, be denied the issuance of a gasoline dealer or special fuels dealer license, and any such licensee shall not have an interest in any such license either disclosed or undisclosed whether as an individual, partnership, corporation or otherwise.

Section 51. KRS 138.665 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A license shall be required of each motor carrier or heavy equipment motor carrier before he uses or continues to use gasoline or special fuels on the public highways of this state, except the department may issue a trip permit for each motor vehicle for a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) for each permit.

(2) Application for a license or trip permit shall be made to the department and shall contain such information as the department deems necessary.

(3) Concurrently with the filing of an application for a license, the motor carrier or heavy equipment motor carrier shall file with the department a bond as required under KRS 138.670. No license shall be issued to any person unless such person has furnished a bond as provided in KRS 138.670 to secure payment of taxes, penalties and interest imposed by KRS 138.655 to 138.725.

(4) The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the bond having been accepted and approved and the other conditions and requirements of this section having been complied with, the department shall issue a license. However, if an application for a license is filed by any person whose license has at any time previously been revoked for cause by the department, or if the department is of the opinion that the person who makes the application as a subterfuge for the real party in interest whose license, prior to the time of filing the application, has been revoked for cause, or that the application is not for any other reason filed in good faith or is not sufficient cause, the department may, after a hearing in accordance with this Act, of which the applicant shall be given ten (10) days' notice in writing and in which he shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, refuse to issue a license to that person.

(5) All licenses shall be valid and remain in full force and effect until suspended or revoked in accordance with this Act for cause or otherwise canceled.

(6) A license shall not be assignable or transferable and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued.

The applicant for a license shall be the principal obligor and this state shall be the obligee. The bond shall be conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the licensee to the department of all taxes levied under KRS 138.655 to 138.725, together with all penalties and interest thereon and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of KRS 138.655 to 138.725.

(2) If the liability upon the bond is discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made, or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the department any surety has become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the department may require the licensee to file a new bond with satisfactory surety in the same form and amount, failing which the department shall forthwith cancel the license. If a new bond is furnished by the licensee as above provided, the department shall cancel the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

(3) If, upon hearing held in accordance with this Act, of which the licensee shall be given ten (10) days' notice in writing, the department decides that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to this state of the amount of the tax, penalties and interest for which the licensee is or may become liable, the licensee shall forthwith, upon written demand of the department, file an additional bond in the same manner and form with surety thereon approved by the department, in any amount determined by the department to be necessary, failing which the department shall forthwith cancel the license.

(4) Any surety on a bond furnished by a licensee shall be released from all liability to this state accruing on such bond after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date upon which the surety has lodged with the department, a written request to be released, but this request shall not operate to release the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period. The department shall promptly, on receipt of the request, notify the licensee who furnished the bond, and unless the licensee shall, before the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, file with the department a new bond with surety satisfactory to the department in the amount and form hereinbefore provided, the department shall forthwith cancel the license. If the new bond is furnished by the licensee as above provided, the department shall cancel the bond for which the new bond is substituted.

Section 53. KRS 138.675 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If a licensee at any time files a false quarterly report of the information required or fails or refuses to file the quarterly report or to pay the full amount of the tax or violates any other provisions of KRS 138.655 to 138.725, inclusive, without a showing that such failure was due to reasonable cause, the department may cancel his license after notice and opportunity for a hearing in accordance with this Act.

(2) Upon voluntary surrender of the license certificate or upon receipt of a written request by a licensee, the department may cancel his license, effective sixty (60) days from the date of the request, but no such license shall be canceled upon surrender or request unless the licensee has, prior to the date of cancellation, paid to this state all taxes, penalties, interest and fines that are due or have accrued, and unless the licensee has surrendered to the department his license certificate.

(3) If upon investigation the department ascertains that any motor carrier or heavy equipment motor carrier to whom a license has been issued is no longer engaged as such and has not been so engaged for a period of six (6) months, the department may cancel such license after notice and opportunity for a hearing in accordance with this Act by giving the motor carrier or heavy equipment motor carrier sixty (60) days' notice of cancellation mailed to his last known address in which event the license certificate shall be surrendered to the department.

(4) Whenever a licensee ceases to engage in business within this state, he shall notify the department in writing within fifteen (15) days after discontinuance. All taxes that have accrued under KRS 138.655 to 138.725, inclusive, whether or not then due, shall become due and payable concurrently with such discontinuance. The licensee shall make a report and pay all such taxes and any interest and penalties thereon, and shall surrender to the department his license certificate.

(5) If the license of a motor carrier or heavy equipment motor carrier is canceled by the department as provided in this section and if the licensee has paid to this state all of the taxes, interest and penalties due under KRS 138.655 to 138.725 and 138.990 (17) and (18), the department shall cancel the bond filed by the licensee.

The division may modify its findings as to the facts, by reason of the additional evidence so taken; and it shall file any modified or new findings with the court, which if supported by substantial evidence shall be conclusive, and may file any recommendation for the modification or setting aside of the original order. The commencement of proceedings under this section does not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the division's order. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals on the same terms and conditions as an appeal is taken in any civil action.

Section 61. KRS 151.293 is amended to read as follows:

In determining the period of inspection, the department may take account of any circumstances pertinent to the situation, including, but not limited to, the size and type of dam, topography, geology, soil conditions, hydrology, climate, use of the reservoir, the lands lying in the floodplain downstream from the dam, and the hazard category of the dam.

(7) The department may modify a certificate of inspection or the conditions attached to it. Such modification shall become effective ninety (90) days following issuance by the department of a revised certificate in accordance with this Act, except when the department finds that a state of emergency exists and that life or property would be endangered by delay. (8) Specific guidelines for issuance and renewal of certificate of inspection shall be provided by regulations.

(9) Plans and specifications submitted to the department shall be the responsibility of and signed by an engineer licensed by the Commonwealth and experienced in the design and construction of dams, as determined by the department.

Where the owner fails, in the judgment of the department, to take satisfactory action toward compliance with such order, or to maintain a satisfactory rate of progress toward full compliance therewith, or where in the judgment of the department, the danger to life or property will not permit delay, the department shall request that a state of emergency be declared by the governor, and upon such declaration, shall take such action as it deems necessary to render the dam, reservoir, levee, embankment, or other water barriers safe, which action may include, but is not limited to:

(a) Taking full charge and control of the dam, reservoir, levee, embankment, or other water barriers;
(b) Lowering the water level or emptying the reservoir;
(c) Performing any necessary remedial or protective work at the site; or
(d) Taking such other steps as may be necessary to safeguard life and property.

(2) The department may continue such action until the dam, reservoir, levee, embankment, or other water barriers involved is rendered safe or the emergency requiring the action has ceased. The secretary is authorized to enter into contracts or agreements with other state, local, or federal agencies, or other persons, for work necessary to implement such necessary actions.

(3) Any person to whom an order is directed pursuant to this section shall comply therewith immediately, but, on petition to the department, may within twenty (20) five (5) working days have a hearing thereon conducted pursuant to this Act.

Such regulations may specify the form of application for license, the qualifications therefor, grounds for revocation of same by the issuing agency, provided that procedures for such revocation, or for denial or suspension, of a license are in accordance with this Act, and such other matters as may be needed to make licensing effective as a means of control. Section 65. KRS 156.134 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any officer suspended by the state board of education under subsection (2) of KRS 156.132 shall be furnished with a written statement, specifying in detail the reasons for suspension and naming a date and place at which the officer may appear before the state board of education to answer the charges. The date shall be not less than twenty (20) nor more than thirty (30) days after the service of such charges upon the officer. Within ten (10) days after receipt of the charges, the officer may notify the state board of education of his intention to appear and answer such charges. If the officer fails to notify the board of his intention to appear and answer such charges, the state board of education may remove the officer by a majority vote and such dismissal shall be final.

If said appeal is not made within thirty (30) days after removal, then the decision of the state board of education shall be final. Said appeal shall be an original action in said court and shall be commenced by the filing of a petition against the state board of education, in which petition the facts shall be alleged upon which the officer relies for a reversal or modification of the order of removal. The court shall examine the transcript and record of the hearing before the state board of education and shall hold such additional hearings as it may deem advisable, at which it may consider other evidence in addition to such transcript and record. Upon final hearing, the court shall grant or deny the relief prayed for in the petition. Either the officer or the state board of education may appeal from the action of the court to the Court of Appeals. Within thirty (30) days of the date of the issuance of such notice any affected owner or operator may request a hearing before the bureau to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of KRS chapter 281 and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder. Failure to request a hearing within thirty (30) days of the date of the issuance of such notice shall make the ruling absolute and the owner or operator shall be liable for the payment of the fees applicable under KRS 186.050 (3) for the entire license year.

(3) In the event a hearing is requested in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, the owner or operator shall not be entitled to the reduced fee during the interim between the application for hearing and the bureau's determination, unless he shall file with the bureau a bond in the amount of $500 per vehicle to be applied to the payment of any taxes which the bureau, as a result of such hearing, may determine are due the commonwealth.

Every manufacturer or dealer registered under this section shall be furnished additional dealer's plates upon the payment of $12.50 for each plate so desired. One dollar ($1.00) shall be retained for each plate so desired. A motor vehicle bearing dealer's plates may be used on the highways by the licensed dealer or by a bona fide salesman or employe of the dealer at all times, or by any manufacturer or dealer licensed as provided above in transporting any motor vehicle over the highways of this state to his place of retail business from a manufacturer or wholesale dealer in motor vehicles. Any dealer in motor vehicles may allow any bona fide customer or the customer's employes to use the dealer's tag on the motor vehicle that is being demonstrated. The license of any manufacturer or dealer shall be revoked for a period of one (1) year and his dealer's plates canceled in the event he violates any of the provisions of this section during this suspension period or has been suspended by the department more than twice for violations of this section. At the end of the revocation or suspension period the manufacturer or dealer whose license has been revoked or suspended and dealer's plates canceled may follow the provisions of this section and again be registered and secure dealer's plates from the clerk.

(4) The Department of Transportation shall be responsible for the administration of this section, and is empowered to promulgate rules and regulations pertaining to the administration thereof.

Section 93. KRS 186.076 is amended to read as follows:

The department of transportation may revoke the license of any motor vehicle dealer who acquires a used motor vehicle for cash, trade-in, or in any other manner, and fails to have the registration transferred to him prior to the time the vehicle is sold or otherwise transferred to another person, or within ten (10) days after acquired, whichever may be sooner. (1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle in this state is deemed to have given his consent to a chemical test of his blood, breath, urine or saliva for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his blood, if arrested for any offense arising out of acts alleged to have been committed while the person was driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle in this state while under the influence of intoxicating beverages. The test shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle in this state while under the influence of intoxicating beverages. The law enforcement agency by which the officer is employed shall designate which of the aforesaid tests shall be administered, and provide necessary equipment.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, is deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided in subsection (1) of this section and the test may be given.

(3) If a person under arrest refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test designated by the law enforcement agency as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the requesting officer shall warn the person of the effect of his refusal to submit to the test. If the person again refuses, none shall be given, but the Department of Transportation, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle in this state while under the influence of intoxicating beverages, that the person refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer, and that the person again refused to submit to the test after the law enforcement officer warned him of the effect of his refusal, shall after notice and hearing in accordance with subsection (4) of this section revoke the license or permit of the person refusing to take the test for a period of not more than six (6) months; or if the person arrested be a nonresident, his operating permit or privilege shall likewise be revoked for not more than six (6) months; or if the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall likewise deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six (6) months after the date of the alleged violation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or nonresident operating privilege of any person, or Upon upon determining that the license or permit to drive or nonresident operating privilege of any person should be revoked or the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, the Secretary of the Department of Transportation shall immediately notify the person in writing and provide an opportunity for by mailing the notice to the person by certified or registered mail to the last known residence address of the person, or, if the address is unknown, to the last known business address of the person. Within ten (10) days after receiving the notice, the person may request a hearing before the secretary. Request for a hearing does not suspend the order of revocation. The hearing shall be scheduled as early as practical within not to exceed twenty (20) days after receipt of such request at a time and place designated by the secretary and shall be conducted in accordance with this Act. The notice of hearing shall be served in the same manner as the notice of revocation or denial of a license. For the purpose of the hearing, the secretary may appoint an examiner who pursuant to this Act shall have power to preside at the hearing. Upon the hearing the secretary or his duly authorized agent may administer oaths and may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers and may require a re-examination of the licensee. The scope of the hearing shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle in this state while under the influence of intoxicating beverages, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer. All testimony at the hearing shall be recorded. The secretary's final order shall be made and the person given a copy thereof in accordance with this Act ruling shall include a statement of the findings of fact, rulings of law and other matters pertinent to the question at issue. The appeal does not suspend the order of revocation unless a stay thereof is allowed by the court pending a final determination of the review. If a stay is allowed, and the final judgment of the court finds against the person appealing, the period of revocation is determined by taking into account the period of time during which the revocation was effective before the stay was granted. The Department of Transportation shall file with its answer a copy of the commissioner's ruling and a transcript of evidence. The court's review is limited to whether the commissioner's ruling is supported by substantial evidence and whether his action is arbitrary or capricious. An appeal to the Court of Appeals does not suspend the order of revocation unless a stay thereof is allowed by the court pending a final determination of the review. If a stay is allowed, and the final judgment of the court finds against the person appealing, the period of revocation is determined by taking into account the period of time during which the revocation was effective before the stay was granted.

(6) When it has been finally determined that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he has a license.

If a person so convicted is not the holder of a Kentucky license, the department shall deny him a license for the same period as if he had possessed a license and license had been suspended. No such suspension, revocation, denial or withdrawal shall be ordered except after notice and opportunity for hearing as provided in subsection (1). The department may, upon receiving a record of the conviction in this state of a nonresident driver of a motor vehicle of any offense under the motor vehicle laws, forward a notice of that person's conviction to the proper officer in the state of which the person so convicted is a resident. The Department of Public Safety is forbidden from suspending or revoking a motor vehicle or motorcycle operator's license or assessing points or any other form of penalty against the holder thereof for speeding violations or speeding convictions from other states. If, upon receipt of such notice, the applicant does not make the required changes, the secretary may refuse to register the pesticide after notice and opportunity for hearing as required in KRS 217.570(5).

(b) When the secretary determines that a pesticide or its labeling does not comply with the provisions of KRS 217.542 to 217.630 or the regulations adopted thereunder, he may cancel the registration of a pesticide after a hearing held as required in KRS 217.570(5).

(c) When the secretary determines that there is an imminent hazard, he may, on his own motion, and in accordance with this Act, suspend the registration of a pesticide without first holding a hearing but a hearing shall be held with the utmost possible expedition.

The secretary may modify his findings and his order by reason of the additional evidence so taken and shall file the additional record and any modification of the findings or order with the clerk of the court.

(2) If the secretary determines that the federally registered pesticide with respect to the use of such pesticide within this state does not warrant the proposed claims for it, or if the pesticide and its labeling and other material required to be submitted do not comply with the provisions of FIFRA or the regulations adopted thereunder, he shall advise EPA of the manner in which the pesticide, labeling, or other material required to be submitted fail to comply with the provisions of FIFRA and suggest necessary corrections.

(3) No article subject to this chapter shall be sold or offered for sale by any person in intrastate commerce, under any name or other marking or labeling which is false or misleading, or in any container of a misleading form or size, but established trade names and other marking and labeling and containers which are not false or misleading and which are approved by the department are permitted.

If the person using or proposing to use the marking, labeling or container does not accept the determination of the commissioner, such person may request a hearing to be conducted pursuant to this Act, but the use of the marking, labeling, or container shall, if the commissioner so directs, be withheld pending hearing and final determination by the commissioner. Such reports and answers shall be made under oath, or otherwise, as the commissioner may prescribe, and shall be filed with the commissioner within such reasonable period as the commissioner may prescribe, unless additional time be granted in any case by the commissioner.

(2) (a) For the purposes of this chapter the commissioner or his authorized representative shall at all reasonable times have access to, for the purpose of examination, and the right to copy, any documentary evidence of any person being investigated or proceeded against, and may require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of all documentary evidence of any person relating to any matter under investigation. (d) The commissioner may order testimony to be taken by deposition in any proceeding or investigation pending under this chapter at any stage of such proceeding or investigation. Such depositions may be taken before any person designated by the commissioner and having power to administer oaths. Such testimony shall be reduced to writing by the person taking the deposition, or under his direction and shall then be subscribed by the deponent. The department shall, promptly on the receipt of the request, notify the licensee who furnished the bond, and unless the licensee shall, before the expiration of the sixty-day period, file with the department a new bond with surety satisfactory to the department in the amount and form hereinbefore provided, the department shall forthwith cancel the license. (4) Whenever a licensee ceases to engage in business within this state, he shall notify the department in writing within fifteen (15) days after discontinuance. All taxes that have accrued under KRS 234.310 to 234.440, whether or not then due, shall become due and payable concurrently with such discontinuance. The licensee shall make a report and pay all such taxes and any interest and penalties thereon, and shall surrender to the department his license.

(1) This section governs judicial review of final decisions of the Kentucky railroad commission only.

(2) Any party to a proceeding before the Kentucky railroad commission (hereinafter referred to in this section as the commission) who has exhausted all administrative remedies available within the commission, and who is aggrieved by a final decision of the commission, is entitled to judicial review of such final decision in accordance with this Act under this section, but not otherwise.

(3) The commission may, in accordance with its general rules of practice, and if sufficient reason therefor be made to appear, grant applications for rehearing, reargument, modification or reconsideration of its orders.

(4) If after rehearing, reargument or reconsideration of a decision or order, it shall appear that the original decision or order is in any respect unjust or unwarranted, the commission may reverse, change or modify the same accordingly. Any decision or order made after rehearing, reargument or reconsideration, reversing, changing or modifying the original determination shall be subject to the same provisions with respect to rehearing, reargument or reconsideration as an original order.

(5) Where application for rehearing, reargument, reconsideration or modification of a decision or order of the commission is made in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules and regulations of the commission, and the decision or order has not yet become effective, the decision or order shall be stayed or postponed pending disposition of the matter by the commission. If the decision or order has become effective, the making of such an application shall not excuse any person from complying with or obeying the decision or order or operate to stay or postpone the enforcement thereof, without the special order of the commission. Provided, however, that the commission must act on such petition within 20 days of its filing with the commission and the failure to so act results in such petition being denied as a matter of law and the decision or order in question thereupon becomes final and subject to judicial review pursuant to the provision of this section.

(6) When an application for rehearing, reargument, reconsideration or modification of any commission decision or order shall have been made and shall have been denied, either expressly or as a matter of law, or after rehearing, reargument or reconsideration, otherwise disposed of by the commission, a suit to review, enjoin, suspend or set aside such decision or order, in whole or in part, may be brought under the provisions of this section, but not otherwise.

(7) Suits to review, enjoin, suspend, or set aside final commission decisions or orders are instituted by filing a petition in the Franklin Circuit Court within 20 days after the party bringing such suit is served with the decision or order sought to be reviewed, enjoined, suspended or set aside, within 20 days of the day a decision or order becomes final under subsection (5) of this section or within 20 days after the party bringing such suit is served with an order disposing of a petition for rehearing, reargument, reconsideration or modification. Copies of the petition shall be served upon the commission and all parties to the commission proceeding sought to be reviewed.

(8) All actions specified in subsection (7) of this section shall be brought by or against the Kentucky railroad commission.

(9) Any party or parties in interest to the proceedings before the commission, in which a decision or order is made, may appear as parties on their own motion and as of right, and be represented by their counsel, in any action involving the review of such decision or order or any part thereof.

(10) The pendency of an action to review, enjoin, set aside or suspend any order of the commission shall not of itself stay or suspend the operation of the order, but the court may, in the manner provided by law, and subject to the provisions of subsection (11) hereof, restrain or suspend, in whole or in part, the operation of the order pending the final hearing and determination of the action.

(11) Subject to the exceptions enumerated in this subsection, injunctive relief may be sought and granted in the manner provided by law. Provided, however, that in no event or under any circumstances shall any court, clerk of court, or county judge grant or issue any temporary restraining order or temporary injunction during the pendency of any action under this section unless and until the party requesting such restraining order or temporary injunction has given adequate bond as required by Kentucky Rule of Civil Procedure 65.05, the provisions of any other sections of Kentucky Revised Statutes, rules, or cases to the contrary notwithstanding. The court, clerk of court, or county judge shall have no power or discretion to relieve any applicant for a temporary restraining order or temporary injunction from the requirement of posting such bond. Provided, further, that no temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction enjoining or restraining the collection of increased rates and charges, shall be issued in cases where the commission has approved, authorized or required tariffs of increased rates or charges, when one of the provisions of such tariffs requires the railroads collecting such increased charges to refund to the persons paying such charges the difference between the rate or charge collected and the rate or charge finally approved, authorized or required by the commission. In all such cases, the commission decision or order shall become effective pending review under this section.

(12) Within 20 30 days after the service of the petition, or within such further time as may be allowed by the court, the commission shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. The cost of preparing and certifying the record (which shall not exceed the rates allowed the official court reporter) shall be paid to the commission by the party taking the appeal, and taxed as part of the costs, to be paid as directed by the court upon final determination of the action. Copies of the record shall be furnished at cost to any party to the proceedings. By stipulation of all parties to the proceedings, the record may be shortened. A party unreasonably refusing to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs.

(13) If, before the date set for hearing, application is made to the court for leave to present additional evidence, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were good reasons for failure to present it in the proceeding before the commission, the court may order that the additional evidence be taken before the commission upon conditions determined by the court. The commission may modify its findings, conclusions, decisions or orders by reason of the additional evidence and shall file that evidence and any modifications, new findings, new conclusions, new decisions or new orders with the reviewing court.

(14) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be confined to the record of the proceeding before the commission. In cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the commission, not shown in the record, proof thereon may be taken in the court. The court, upon request, may shall hear oral argument and receive written briefs. In all review actions under this section, the burden of proof shall be borne by the party seeking to enjoin, suspend, set aside or vacate the commission's decision or order, in whole or in part.

(15) The reviewing court shall:

(a) Compel commission action unlawfully withheld or unreasonably delayed; and

(b) Hold unlawful and set aside commission action, findings, conclusions, decisions and orders in accordance with the provisions of this Act found to be

1. Arbitrary or capricious, characterized by abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with the law;
2. Contrary to constitutional right, power, privilege or immunity;
3. In excess of statutory jurisdiction or authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right;
4. Deficient because of the commission's failure to observe procedures required by law; or
5. Unsupported by the preponderance of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the record as a whole.

In making the foregoing determinations, the court shall review the whole record or those parts of it cited by a party, and due account shall be taken of the rule of prejudicial error.

Section 203. KRS 278.070 is amended to read as follows:

The governor may remove any commissioner for cause, after giving him a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being publicly heard in person or by counsel in his own defense upon not less than ten (10) days' notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with this Act. If a commissioner is removed, the governor shall file in the office of the secretary of state a complete statement of all charges against the commissioner and his findings thereon, and a complete record of the proceedings. Any commissioner so removed may bring action in the proper court in accordance with this Act to determine whether or not he was legally removed in accordance with this section.

Section 204. KRS 278.190 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any utility files with the commission any schedule stating new rates, the commission may, upon its own motion, or upon complaint as provided in KRS 278.260, and upon reasonable notice, enter upon a hearing conducted as required by KRS 278.310 concerning the reasonableness of the new rates.

(2) Pending such hearing and the decision thereon, and after notice to the utility, the commission may, at any time before said schedule becomes effective, suspend the operation of said schedule and defer the use of such rate, charge, classification or service, but not for a longer period than five (5) months beyond the time when it would otherwise go into effect; and after such hearing, either completed before or after the rate, charge, classification or service goes into effect, the commission may make such orders with reference thereto as it deems proper in the matter. If the proceeding has not been concluded and an order made at the expiration of such five (5) months the utility may place the proposed change of rate, charge, classification or service in effect at the end of such period after notifying the commission, in writing, of its intention so to do. Where increased rates or charges are thus made effective, the commission may, by order, require the interested utility or utilities to maintain their records in such manner as will enable them, or the commission, or any of its customers, to determine the amounts to be refunded and to whom due in the event a refund is ordered, and upon completion of the hearing and decision may, by further order, require such utility or utilities to refund to the persons in whose behalf such amounts were paid such portion of such increased rates or charges as by its decision shall be found unreasonable. Provided, however, if the commission, at any time, during said five (5) months' suspension period, finds that an emergency exists or that the company's credit or operations will be materially impaired or damaged by the failure to permit said rates to become effective during said five (5) months' period, said commission may, after any hearing or hearings conducted as required by KRS 278.310, permit all or a portion of said rates to become effective under such terms and conditions as the commission may, by order, prescribe.

(3) At any hearing involving the rate or charge sought to be increased, the burden of proof to show that the increased rate or charge is just and reasonable shall be upon the utility and the commission shall give to the hearing and decision of such questions preference over other questions pending before it and decide the same as speedily as possible, and in any event not later than ten (10) months after the filing of such schedules.

(4) In the event the commission, by order, directs any utility to make a refund, as hereinabove provided, of all or any portion of such increased rates or charges, the utility shall make the same within sixty (60) days after a final determination of the proceeding by an order of the court or commission with or without interest in the discretion of the commission. If the utility fails to make such refund within sixty (60) days after such final determination, any party entitled to such refund may, after ten (10) days' written demand, bring an action therefor in any court of competent jurisdiction of this state, and may recover, in addition to the amount of the refund due, legal interest, court costs and reasonable attorney's fees. No such action may be maintained unless instituted within one (1) year after such final determination. Any number of persons entitled to such refunds may join in as plaintiffs in a single action and the court shall render a judgment severally for each plaintiff as his interest may appear.

The commission may also make such an investigation on its own motion. No order affecting the rates or service complained of shall be entered by the commission without a formal public hearing conducted as required by KRS 278.310.

Section 206. KRS 278.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall fix the time and place for each hearing held by it, and shall serve notice and schedule and conduct the thereof upon the utility and the complainant not less than twenty (20) days before the time set for the hearing in accordance with this Act. The commission may dismiss any complaint without a hearing if, in its opinion, a hearing is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of substantial rights.

(2) All hearings and investigations before the commission or any commissioner shall be governed by rules adopted by the commission in accordance with this Act ,and in the conduct thereof neither the commission nor the commissioner shall be bound by the technical rules of legal evidence.

(3) The complainant and the person complained of shall be entitled to be heard in person or by attorney and to introduce evidence.

Whenever a joint application of two (2) or more such telephone companies requesting such finding and consent is filed with the public service commission, the commission shall make such investigation, hold such hearings in accordance with this Act, examine such witnesses and require the production of such books, papers, and records as it deems pertinent to the determination of the application, and shall grant or withhold such consent as the facts warrant.

(3) The public service commission shall have jurisdiction of those matters set out in $YSM201 of the constitution that relate to telephone companies, and shall enter in its minutes a record of its acts in relation thereto.

Section 208. KRS 278.530 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any telephone company desires to connect its exchange or lines with the exchange or lines of another telephone company and the latter refuses to permit this to be done upon reasonable terms, rates and conditions, the company desiring the connection may proceed as provided in subsection (2) or as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) The company desiring the connection may file a written statement with the public service commission setting out the reasons why the connection is desired and the points at which the connection should be made, and giving the name and address of the owner or chief officer residing in this state of each company with which the connection is desired. The secretary of the commission shall thereupon cause a copy of the written statement to be served upon the companies owning or operating such lines or exchanges, by mailing a copy to the owner or chief officer residing in this state, and shall fix a date , not earlier than ten (10) days from the date of mailing the notice, for the hearing of the application in accordance with this Act. Upon the day so fixed for the hearing, the companies may respond in writing to the application, and either side may introduce such testimony as it desires and be heard by attorneys. After the hearing is completed the commission shall make its finding and enter it in a book to be kept for that purpose , and shall serve mail a copy thereof to each side in accordance with this Act; and if the commission directs the connection to be made it shall indicate the points where the connection is to be made, the number of wires to be connected, the terms and conditions and the rates to be charged, and the division of the rates charged between the companies handling the messages. The cost of making the connection shall be borne equally by the parties. If any company refuses to make a connection for a period of thirty (30) days after the finding of the commission directing the connection to be made, the company desiring the connection may make the connection and may recover one-half (1/2) of the cost thereof from the company so refusing.

(3) In lieu of the procedure provided in subsection (2) of this section, the company desiring the connection may compel the connection upon reasonable terms by suit in equity in the Franklin Circuit Court or in the circuit court of the county in which the company making the demand resides or has its chief office in this state, and the court shall, by mandatory injunction, compel the physical connection of the wires and interchange of messages, and enforce the same by contempt proceedings and in the same manner that other mandatory injunctions are enforced.

If, after such notice and hearing, the department finds that the company has failed to comply with any of the provisions of KRS 280.010 to 280.110, the bureau shall revoke the certificate. If the certificate is revoked, the bureau shall take over the operation of the bridge or ferry.

(2) In any of the cases mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, the company may proceed under the provisions of KRS 280.110 to determine its rights.

Section 210. KRS 280.110 is amended to read as follows:

In all matters in which the bureau of highways has power and authority under KRS 280.010 to 280.100, it may, in accordance with this Act, hear applications and complaints, issue subpoenas, compel the attendance of witnesses, require persons to testify under oath, administer oaths, and issue process, orders, opinions and decisions, but from each decision, order or regulation of the department an appeal may be taken to the Franklin Circuit Court, and from that court to the Court of Appeals. Such appeals to the circuit court or the Court of Appeals shall be taken in accordance with this Act have precedence of all other cases pending. The proceedings had before the department and the evidence heard before it shall be certified to the circuit court when an appeal is taken, and no other evidence shall be heard by the circuit court or by the Court of Appeals.

Section 211. KRS 281.600 is amended to read as follows:

The bureau of vehicle regulation shall exercise all administrative functions of the state in relation to motor transportation as defined in this chapter, and shall apply, as far as practicable, the administrative and judicial interpretations of the federal motor carrier act. It may issue subpoenas, subpoenas duces tecum and orders of personal attendance of witnesses, and production of pertinent records, for any proceeding before it, and permit the taking of depositions, all in accord with the provisions of this Act, the Rules of Civil Procedure and it shall have the power to make such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The bureau shall have the authority to promulgate regulations regarding safety requirements for motor vehicles and the method of operation, and any motor vehicle operating contrary to such safety rules and regulations shall be in violation of this section.

Section 212. KRS 281.630 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A certificate shall be issued to any qualified applicant therefor, authorizing the whole or any part of the operation covered by the application, if it is found that the applicant is fit, willing and able properly to perform the service proposed and to conform to the provisions of this chapter and the requirements and the rules and regulations of the bureau thereunder, and further that the existing transportation service is inadequate, and that the proposed service, to the extent to be authorized by the certificate, is or will be required by the present or future public convenience and necessity, and that the proposed operation, to the extent authorized by the certificate, will be consistent with the public interest and the transportation policy declared in this chapter; otherwise such application shall be denied, provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed so as to require the bureau to give, to any existing carrier authorized to render service to, from or between any point on the route proposed to be served by the applicant, any notice regarding the quality or quantity of its service to, from or between such points or to require the bureau to give to such existing carrier any opportunity to improve its existing service or to render the service found to be needed before the issuance of a certificate to the applicant.

(2) In granting a certificate, the order, among other things, shall specify the route or routes of service and territory to be served, provided that where the certificate to be granted specifies a route or routes or portion of a route or routes common to a certificate or certificates authorizing the same type of operation held by the applicant, all such certificates shall constitute but a single operating authority over that portion of the route or routes common to the certificates. The order granting a certificate shall not limit the number of vehicles to be operated by the motor carrier except that, in the granting of a certificate for the operation of taxicabs, the order shall specify the maximum number of taxicabs to be operated thereunder.

(3) A carrier shall be entitled to have issued to it by the bureau as many certificates, and of such types, as will cover its entire authorized operation.

(4) A permit shall be granted to any qualified applicant therefor authorizing in whole or in part the operations covered by the application, if it appears from the application and the hearing held thereon in accordance with this Act that the applicant is fit, willing and able properly to perform the service of a contract carrier by motor vehicle and to conform to the provisions of this chapter and the lawful requirements, rules and regulations of the bureau thereunder, and that the proposed operation to the extent authorized by the permit will be consistent with the public interest and the transportation policy declared in this chapter, and that it will not unreasonably impair the efficient public service of any authorized common carrier than adequately serving the same territory, and if it further appears that the existing transportation service is inadequate, and that it appears that the proposed service is needed; otherwise such application shall be denied. The bureau shall specify in the permit the business of the contract carrier covered thereby and the scope thereof, and shall attach to it at the time of issuance, and from time to time thereafter, such reasonable terms, conditions and limitations consistent with the character of the holder as a contract carrier as are necessary to carry out, with respect to the operations of such carrier, the requirements established by the bureau.

(5) Amendment or change of route or abandonment of a certificate or permit shall be granted upon the same basis that an original certificate or permit is granted.

(6) Any certificate or permit may be sold, assigned, leased or transferred, after a hearing and notice to interested parties as provided for in KRS 281.625, provided the transferee is fit, willing and able to render the proposed service, unless it would be against the public interest, and provided further that the commissioner may approve the sale and transfer of a certificate or permit without a hearing if, after due notice of the proposed sale or transfer is given to all interested parties in accordance with the rules and regulations of the bureau, no protest is filed to the proposed sale or transfer and the commissioner believes that it will be in the public interest.

(7) For the purpose of this section, a transfer of the controlling stock of a corporation owning a certificate or permit may be considered a transfer of said certificate or permit.

(8) Upon the consummation of a merger or consolidation of motor carriers as effected under the provisions of KRS Chapter 271A, the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, shall own and possess all of the certificates, permits, authorizations, licenses, rights, privileges, franchises and properties owned or possessed by each of such motor carriers; and if such merger or consolidation is set aside, the certificates, permits, authorizations, licenses, rights, privileges, franchises and properties acquired by the surviving or new corporation through the merger or consolidation shall become revested in the corporation from which acquired, unless disposed of, subject to such indebtedness and liens as may be equitable, and all other properties of the surviving or new corporation shall become vested in the constituent corporation in such manner as may be fair and equitable.

(9) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, where a motor carrier has been granted two (2) or more certificates or permits authorizing the same type of operation over a route or routes or a portion of a route or routes common to two (2) or more of the certificates or permits, the carrier shall be deemed to possess only one operating authority over that portion of the routes common to the certificates or permits.

(b) The bureau is authorized to recall any certificates and to reissue one or more certificates covering the exact authority.

Section 213. KRS 281.640 is amended to read as follows:

The examiner shall be appointed by the commissioner of the bureau. After the final conclusion of the hearing, the examiner shall make a report and recommended order, which report and recommended order shall contain a finding of fact and a conclusion of law, and such report and recommended order shall be served by mail upon each of the parties. Any of the parties thereto may, within twenty (20) days after the date of the report and recommended order, file and serve exceptions thereto and reasons in support thereof. Replies may be served and filed within twenty (20) days after the date of the filing of exceptions. Thereafter the commissioner or one (1) of the assistant commissioners shall consider and pass upon the case. When passed upon by the commissioner or when passed upon by an assistant commissioner and approved by the commissioner, the decision shall be served by mail upon all parties and shall be a final order of the bureau shall be rendered and notice thereof provided in accordance with this Act. The report and recommended order will not become the decision of the bureau through failure to file exceptions, but in the absence of exceptions ordinarily will be taken by the bureau as the basis of its decision. However, nothing herein contained shall prevent the commissioner from holding or conducting any hearing, referred to herein, in regard to rates, fares and charges, and his decision shall be the final order of the bureau.

Section 214. KRS 281.670 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever any motor carrier is found to be violating any of the provisions of this chapter, or any order or rule and regulation prescribed by the bureau pursuant thereto, or any of the laws of this state, or is found to be permitting any of its drivers or vehicles to violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or any order, or rule and regulation prescribed by the bureau pursuant thereto, or any of the laws of this state or is found to be unfit to carry out the duties, obligations and responsibilities of a motor carrier, the bureau may, upon complaint or upon its own motion, issue its order to such motor carrier notifying it to appear before the bureau at a fixed time and place at which time and place the bureau shall have a hearing in accordance with this Act. If the bureau is satisfied, after a hearing, that the motor carrier has violated or refused to observe any of the provisions of this chapter, or any order, or rule or regulation of the bureau, or any of the laws of this state, or has permitted any of its drivers or motor vehicles to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or any order, or rule or regulation prescribed by the bureau pursuant thereto, or any of the laws of this state, or has become unfit to carry out the duties, obligations and responsibilities of a motor carrier, the bureau may suspend, revoke, alter or amend any certificate or permit issued to such carrier. The renewal by the bureau of the certificate or permit of any motor carrier shall not be construed to be a waiver or condonement of any violation which occurred prior to such renewal and shall not prevent subsequent proceedings against the motor carrier therefor.

Section 215. KRS 281.695 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The bureau has authority to fix or approve the rates, fares, charges, classifications, rules and regulations of each common carrier, and to regulate operating schedules so as to insure adequate and convenient transportation service. If the bureau, after a hearing held upon reasonable notice in accordance with this Act upon its own motion or upon complaint, finds any existing rate to be excessive, inadequate, unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory, or finds the services rendered or facilities employed by any common carrier to be unsafe, inadequate, inconvenient or in violation of law or of the rules and regulations of the bureau, it may determine the just and reasonable rate to be charged therefor, or the reasonable, safe, adequate and convenient service to be thereafter furnished, and shall fix the same by order. The bureau need not fix the same rates as are or may be fixed by other authorities for carriers engaged in other methods of transportation.

(2) The bureau has authority to fix or approve the contracts and regulations of each contract carrier so as to insure adequate and convenient transportation service. If the bureau, after a hearing held upon reasonable notice in accordance with this Act upon its own motion or upon complaint, finds any existing contract to be excessive, unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory, or finds the services rendered or facilities employed by any contract carrier to be unsafe, inadequate, inconvenient or in violation of law or of the rules and regulations of the bureau, it may determine the just and reasonable amounts to be charged therefor, or the reasonable, safe, adequate and convenient service to be thereafter furnished, and shall fix the same by order.

Section 216. KRS 281.700 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No common carrier shall abandon or change any route or service, except upon an application heretofore provided for; except, however, if it becomes necessary, on account of the condition of the highways or other emergency, a common carrier may make temporary changes in route, service or schedules by notifying the bureau of such change. However, any carrier operating under a suburban bus certificate may make such changes in routes and schedules as may be necessary for the public convenience and shall not be required to notify the bureau of such changes, unless such changed condition is to continue for a period longer than ten (10) days, in which event the carrier shall notify the bureau of the additional time that it desires such change or changes to remain in effect, and the reason therefor, and the bureau may grant such extension of time without a hearing.

(2) If after the granting of a certificate or permit operation is not begun within sixty (60) days thereof, said certificate or permit will become null and void, and cannot be reinstated; Provided, however, That the bureau may grant an additional time to begin such operation, provided application therefor is made within the sixty-day period.

(3) If, after a motor carrier has operated in good faith, there is an abandonment of the whole or any part of said operation, the bureau may notify said motor carrier to immediately begin such operation, and if such motor carrier fails to do so within thirty (30) days thereof, the bureau may enter an order cancelling said

The appellant shall furnish a copy of the petition to each person who was a party to the hearing before the department. The department shall, upon being served with the summons, and within thirty days thereafter, file a copy of the record, duly certified by the commissioner, the cost of such record to be taxed as costs upon appeal. (b) Any provision of this chapter or any rule, order, or condition lawfully imposed under this chapter has been willfully violated, in connection with the offering by (1) the person filing the registration statement, (2) the issuer, any partner, officer, or director of the issuer, any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer, but only if the person filing the registration statement is directly or indirectly controlled by or acting for the issuer, or (3) any underwriter;

(c) The security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of an administrative stop order or a similar order or a permanent or temporary injunction of any court of competent jurisdiction entered under any other federal or state act applicable to the offering; but 1. the director may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this paragraph more than one year from the date of the order or injunction relied on, and 2. he may not enter an order under this paragraph on the basis of an injunction entered under any other state act unless that order or injunction was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for a stop order under this section;

(d) The issuer's enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities which are illegal where performed;

(e) The offering has worked or tended to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

(f) The offering has been, or would be, made with unreasonable amounts of underwriters' and sellers' discounts, commissions, or other compensations, or promoters' profits or participation, or unreasonable amounts or kinds of options;

(g) When a security is sought to be registered by notification it is not eligible for such registration;

(h) When a security is sought to be registered by coordination, there has been a failure to comply with the undertaking required by KRS 292.360 (2) (g);

(i) The applicant or registrant has failed to pay the proper registration fee; but the director may enter only a denial order under this paragraph and he shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected;

(j) A commission or fee greater than fifteen percent would be paid directly or indirectly, in consideration for the sale of securities sought to be registered and this fee shall exclude reasonable legal and accounting expenses.

(2) The director may not enter a stop order against an effective registration statement on the basis of a fact or transaction known to him when the registration statement became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within the next thirty days.

(3) The director may by order summarily postpone or suspend the effectiveness of the registration statement in accordance with this Act pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. Upon the entry of a stop order under any part of this section, the director shall promptly notify the issuer of the securities, the applicant or registrant and the person on whose behalf the securities are to be or have been offered, that the order has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within twenty (20) fifteen days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing in accordance with this Act. If no hearing is requested within fifteen days and none is ordered by the director, the director shall conduct such hearing and enter his written final order findings of fact and conclusions of law and the stop order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the director. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director, after notice of and opportunity for hearing provided as described in this subsection to the issuer and to the applicant or registrant, shall enter his written final order finding of fact and conclusions of law and may modify or vacate the stop order. The director may modify or vacate a stop order if he finds that the conditions which prompted its entry have changed or that it is otherwise in the public interest to do so.

Section 230. KRS 292.410 is amended to read as follows:

2. no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any prospective buyer in this state (other than those designated in paragraph (h)); but the director may by rule or order, as to any security or transaction, withdraw or further condition this exemption, or increase or decrease the number of offerees permitted, or waive the conditions in subparagraphs 1. and 2. of this paragraph with or without the substitution of a limitation on remuneration;

No such order may be entered without appropriate prior notice and to all interested parties, opportunity for hearing in accordance with this Act, and written final order issued pursuant thereto findings of fact and conclusions of law, except that the director may by order summarily suspend deny or revoke any of the specified exemptions in accordance with this Act pending final determination of any proceeding under this subsection. Upon entry of a summary order, the director shall promptly notify all interested parties in accordance with this Act that it has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within twenty (20) fifteen days of the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested, and none is ordered by the director shall conduct such hearing and enter his final order, and the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the director. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to all interested persons in accordance with this Act, may modify or vacate the order to extend it until final determination. No order under this subsection may operate retroactively. No person may be considered to have violated this chapter by reason of any offer or sale effected after the entry of an order under this subsection if he sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the order. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exemption from a definition is upon the person claiming it.

Section 231. KRS 292.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The administration of the provisions of this chapter shall be under the Division of Securities in the Department of Banking.

(2) It is unlawful for the director or any of his officers or employes to use for personal benefit any information which is filed with or obtained by the director and which is not made public. No provision of this chapter authorizes the director or any of his officers or employes to disclose any such information except among themselves or when necessary or appropriate in a proceeding or investigation under this chapter. No provision of this chapter either creates or derogates from any privilege which exists at common law or otherwise when documentary or other evidence is sought under a subpoena directed to the director or any of his officers or employes.

(3) The director may from time to time make, amend, and rescind such rules, forms and orders as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including rules and forms governing registration statements, applications, and reports and defining any terms, whether or not used in this chapter, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of rules and forms, the director may classify securities, persons, and matters within his jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes.

(4) No rule, form, or order may be made, amended, or rescinded unless the director finds that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provision of this chapter. In prescribing rules and forms the director may cooperate with the securities administrators of the other states and the Securities and Exchange Commission with a view to effectuating the policy of this statute to achieve maximum uniformity in the form and content of registration statement, applications, and reports whenever practicable.

(5) The director may by rule or order prescribe the form and content of financial statements required under this chapter and the circumstances under which consolidation financial statements shall be certified by independent, public or certified public accountants. All financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

(6) All rules and forms of the director shall be published.

(7) No provision of this chapter imposing any liability applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule, form, or order of the director, notwithstanding that the rule, form or order may later be amended or rescinded or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(8) A document is filed when it is received by the director.

(9) Every hearing in an administrative proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with this Act and be public unless the director in his discretion grants a request joined in by all the respondents that the hearing be conducted privately.

(10) The director shall keep a register of all applications for registration and registration statements which are or have ever been effective under this chapter and all denial, suspension, or revocation orders which have ever been entered under this chapter. The register shall be open for public inspection.

(11) The information contained in or filed with any registration statement, application, or report may be made available to the public under such rules as the director prescribes.

(12) Upon request and at such reasonable charges as he prescribes, the director shall furnish to any person photostatic or other copies (certified under his seal of office if requested) of any entry in the register or any document which is a matter of public record. In any proceeding or prosecution under this chapter, any copy so certified is prima facie evidence of the contents of the entry or document certified.

(13) The director in his discretion may honor requests from interested persons for interpretative opinions or declaratory orders in accordance with this Act.

Section 232. KRS 293.050 is amended to read as follows:

Each Commissioner holding office by appointment of the Governor may be removed from office by the Governor, for cause, after a public hearing in accordance with this Act, and may be suspended by the Governor pending the completion of the hearing. Each Commissioner before entering upon his duties shall take and subscribe an oath to perform the duties of his office faithfully, impartially and justly to the best of his ability. A record of the oath shall be entered in the Minute Book.

Section 233. KRS 304.2-310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may hold a hearing in accordance with this Act, without request by others, for any purpose within the scope of this code.

(2) The commissioner shall hold a hearing in accordance with this Act:

(a) If required by any other provision of this code; or

(b) Upon written application for a hearing by a person aggrieved by any act, threatened act, or failure of the commissioner to act, or by any report, rule, regulation or order of the commissioner (other than an order for the holding of a hearing, or an order entered after a hearing, of which hearing such person had notice). Any such application must be filed in the department within sixty (60) days after such person knew or reasonably should have known, of such act, threatened act, failure, report, rule, regulation or order, unless a different period is provided for by other laws applicable to the particular matter, in which case such other law shall govern.

(3) Any such application for a hearing shall briefly state the respects in which the applicant is so aggrieved, together with the grounds to be relied upon as a basis for the relief to be sought at the hearing.

(4) If the commissioner finds that the application is made in good faith, that the applicant would be so aggrieved if his grounds are established, he shall hold the hearing within twenty (20) thirty (30) days after receipt filing of the application, unless postponed by mutual consent.

(5) Pending the hearing and decision thereon, the commissioner shall suspend or postpone the effective date of his previous action.

Section 234. KRS 304.2-320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Except where a longer period is expressly provided in this code, the commissioner shall give written notice of the hearing in accordance with this Act. not less than ten (10) days in advance. The notice shall state the date, time and place of the hearing and specify the matters to be considered thereat. If the persons to be given notice are not specified in the provision pursuant to which the hearing is held, the commissioner shall give such notice to all persons whose pecuniary interest, to the commissioner's knowledge or belief, are to be directly and immediately affected by the hearing.

(2) If any such hearing is to be held for consideration of rules and regulations of the commissioner, or of other matters which, under subsection (1) of this section, would otherwise require separate notice to more than thirty (30) persons, in lieu of other notice the commissioner may give notice of the hearing by publication pursuant to KRS chapter 424; but the commissioner shall mail such notice to all persons who had requested the same in writing in advance and have paid to the commissioner the reasonable amount fixed by him to cover the cost thereof.

(3) All such notices, other than published notices, shall be given as provided in KRS 304.2-120.

Section 235. KRS 304.2-330 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner, or any person duly authorized in writing by the commissioner, shall preside at the hearing, and shall expedite the hearing and all procedures involved therein, and shall have the same powers as the commissioner in relation to the entire matter except the order on the hearing, if not prepared by the commissioner, shall be approved by writing by the commissioner.

(2) Any party to the hearing shall have the right to appear in person and by counsel, to be present during the giving of all evidence, to have a reasonable opportunity to inspect all documentary and other evidence and to examine and cross-examine witnesses, to present evidence in support of his interest and to have subpoenas issued by the commissioner to compel attendance of witnesses and production of evidence in his behalf. Testimony may be taken orally or by deposition, and any party shall have such right of introducing evidence by interrogatories or deposition as may obtain in a circuit court.

(3) Upon good cause shown the commissioner shall permit to become a party to the hearing by intervention, if timely, only such persons, not original parties thereto, whose pecuniary interests are to be directly and immediately affected by the commissioner's order made upon the hearing.

(3) (4) Formal rules of pleading or evidence need not be observed at any hearing so long as procedural due process is afforded all parties, and so long as Said said hearing shall be scheduled and is conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department and this Act.

(5) The hearing shall be public, unless the commissioner, or his authorized designee, determines that a private hearing would be in the public interest, in which case and only with the consent of all parties to the hearing, the hearing shall be private.

(6) The commissioner shall cause a full stenographic record of the proceedings to be made. If transcribed, a copy of such record shall be part of the commissioner's record of the hearing; and a copy shall be furnished to any other party to the hearing, at the request and expense of such other party. If no such record is transcribed, the commissioner shall prepare a summary record of the proceedings and evidence.

(7) The validity of any hearing held in accordance with the notice thereof, or waiver of notice, shall not be affected by the failure of any person to attend or remain in attendance.

(8) The commissioner or his authorized designee may adjourn any hearing from time to time and from place to place without other notice of the adjourned hearing than announcement thereof at the hearing.

Section 236. KRS 304.2-340 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner or his authorized designee conducting a hearing, examination or investigation by his authority shall have power to subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, administer oaths, examine any person under oath relative to the subject of the hearing, examination or investigation, and to compel any person to subscribe to his testimony after it has been correctly reduced to writing, and, in connection therewith, to require the production of any books, papers, records, correspondence or other documents which he deems relevant to the inquiry.

(2) A subpoena issued pursuant to this section shall have the same force and effect and shall be served in the same manner as if issued from a court of record.

(3) If any individual refuses to comply with any such subpoena or to testify as to any matter concerning which he may be lawfully interrogated, the circuit court of the county wherein such examination, investigation, or hearing is being conducted or of the county wherein such individual resides, on the commissioner's application may, after summary hearing, issue an order requiring such individual to comply with the subpoena and to testify; and failure to obey such an order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

(4) Witness fees and mileage, if claimed, shall be allowed the same as for testimony in a circuit court, but no officer, director, agent or employe of an insurer or person being examined or investigated shall be entitled to witness or mileage fees.

(5) Any individual wilfully testifying falsely under oath as to any material to any such examination, investigation, or hearing shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of perjury.

(6) The rules of evidence as prescribed in this Act shall apply to any hearing conducted pursuant to this subtitle.

Section 237. KRS 304.2-360 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In the conduct of hearings under this code and making his order thereon, the commissioner shall act in a quasi-judicial capacity.

(2) The Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, within thirty (30) days after termination of a hearing, or of any rehearing thereof or reargument thereon, or within such other period as may be specified in this code as to particular proceedings, the commissioner shall make his order covering matters involved in such hearing, and give a copy of the order to each party to the hearing, in accordance with this Act the same manner as notice of the hearing was given to such party. With respect to hearings held concerning merger, consolidation, bulk re-insurance, conversion, affiliation or change of control of a domestic insurer as provided in subtitle 24, or in subtitle 27, where notice of the hearing was given to all stockholders and policyholders or to all stockholders of an insurer involved, the commissioner is required to give a copy of the order on hearing to the corporation and insurer parties, to intervening parties, to a reasonable number of such stockholders or policyholders as representative of the class, and to other parties only upon written request of such parties.

(3) The order shall contain:

(a) A concise statement of facts found by the commissioner upon evidence adduced at the hearing;

(b) A concise statement of the commissioner's conclusions of law from the facts so found;

(c) His order, and the effective date thereof; and

(d) Citation of the provisions of this code upon which the order is based.

(3) (4) The order may affirm, modify or rescind action theretofore taken or may constitute taking of new action within the scope of the notice of the hearing.

(4) (5) An order prepared by the commissioner's designee and approved in writing by the commissioner shall be considered the commissioner's order.

Section 238. KRS 304.2-370 is amended to read as follows:

(1) An appeal from the commissioner shall be taken only from an order on hearing.

(2) Any person who was a party to such a hearing and who is aggrieved by such order may appeal from such order within thirty (30) days after the order on hearing becomes final has been mailed or delivered to the persons entitled to receive the same, or given by last publication thereof where delivery by publication is permitted.

(3) The appeal shall be granted as a matter of right, and shall be taken to the Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with this Act.

(4) The appeal shall be taken by filing in the court a verified petition setting forth the grounds for appeal, together with a bond with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the court, conditioned to pay all costs which may be assessed against the appellant or petitioner in such proceedings, and by serving a copy of the petition on the commissioner. If the appeal is from the commissioner's order on hearing, the petitioner shall also deliver to the commissioner a sufficient number of copies of the petition and the commissioner shall mail or otherwise furnish a copy thereof to the other parties to the hearing to the same extent as a copy of the commissioner's orders is required to be furnished to the hearing parties under KRS 304.2-360.

(5) Upon receiving the petition on appeal, the commissioner shall forthwith prepare an official record certified by him which shall contain a copy of all proceedings and orders of the commissioner appealed from and the transcript of testimony and evidence or summary record thereof made as provided in KRS 304.2-330. Within thirty (30) days after the petition was served upon him the commissioner shall file such official record with the court.

(6) Upon filing of the petition on appeal the court shall have full jurisdiction of the proceeding. Such filing shall not stay the enforcement of the commissioner's order or action appealed from unless so stayed by order of the court in which the appeal is pending.

(7) A case shall be set down by the court for as early a day as possible for a hearing and shall in all respects be expedited as a declaratory judgment suit. No new or additional evidence shall be introduced in the circuit court except as to fraud or misconduct of some party engaged in the administration of this chapter and affecting the order appealed from, but the court shall otherwise hear the case upon the record as attested by the department and shall in all respects dispose of the appeal in a summary manner. Its review shall be limited to determining whether or not (a) the commissioner acted without or in excess of his powers; (b) legal or procedural due process was afforded the appellant; and (c) if questions of fact are in issue, whether or not any substantial evidence supports the order appealed from.

(8) After such a hearing, the court shall enter a judgment sustaining or setting aside the order of the commissioner appealed from or, in its discretion, the court may remand the case to the commissioner for the purpose of taking additional testimony or other proceedings.

(4) (9) From the judgment of the Franklin Circuit Court the commissioner or other party to the appeal may appeal to the Kentucky Court of Appeals in the same manner as provided in civil cases.

(2) Except in case of insolvency or impairment of required capital or surplus, or suspension or revocation by another state or country as referred to in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner shall give the insurer at least twenty (20) days notice in advance of and hearing on any such refusal, suspension, or revocation under this section, in accordance with subtitle 2 and of the particulars of the reasons therefor. If the insurer requests a hearing thereon within such twenty (20) days, such request shall automatically stay the commissioner's proposed action until his order is made on such hearing.

Section 240. KRS 304.3-200 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may, in his discretion, refuse to continue or may suspend or revoke an insurer's certificate of authority if he finds after a hearing thereon, or upon waiver of hearing by the insurer, that the insurer has:

(a) Wilfully violated or wilfully failed to comply with any lawful order of the commissioner; or

(b) Wilfully violated or wilfully failed to comply with any lawful regulation of the commissioner; or

(c) Wilfully violated any provision of this code other than those for violation of which suspension or revocation is mandatory; or

(a) Is in unsound condition, or is being fraudulently conducted, or is in such condition or using such methods and practices in the conduct of its business as to render its further transaction of insurance in this state currently or prospectively hazardous or injurious to policyholders or to the public.

(b) With such frequency as to indicate its general business practice in this state:

1. Has without just cause failed to pay, or delayed payment of, claims arising under its policies, whether the claim is in favor of an insured or is in favor of a third person with respect to the liability of an insured to such third person; or

2. Without just cause compels insureds or claimants to accept less than the amount due them or to employ attorneys or to bring suit against the insurer or such an insured to secure full payment or settlement of such claims.

(d) Has failed to pay any final judgment rendered against it in this state upon any policy, bond, recognizance or undertaking as issued or guaranteed by it, within thirty (30) days after the judgment became final or within thirty (30) days after dismissal of an appeal before final determination, whichever date is the later.

(3) The commissioner may, in his discretion and without advance notice or a hearing thereon, immediately suspend in accordance with subtitle 2 the certificate of authority of any insurer as to which proceedings for receivership, conservatorship, rehabilitation or other delinquency proceedings have been commenced in any state by the public insurance supervisory officer of such state.

Section 241. KRS 304.9-200 is amended to read as follows:

(1) After completion of application for a license, and the taking and passing of any examination required under this subtitle, the commissioner shall promptly consider the same. If the commissioner finds that the applicant has fully met the requirements therefor, the commissioner shall promptly issue the license to the applicant; otherwise, the commissioner shall refuse to issue the license and promptly notify the applicant and the appointing insurer or agent of such refusal, stating the grounds thereof, and provide opportunity for hearing, in accordance with this Act.

(2) If a license is refused, the commissioner shall promptly refund the appointment fee tendered with the license application. All other fees for application for agent, consultant, solicitor, or adjuster licenses shall be deemed earned when paid and shall not be refundable.

Section 242. KRS 304.9-440 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may suspend or may impose conditions upon the continuance of a license for not more than twelve (12) months, or may revoke or refuse to continue any license issued under this subtitle or any surplus lines broker license if, after notice to the licensee and to the insurer represented (as to an agent) or to the employer (as to a solicitor) and a hearing in accordance with subtitle 2 of this Code, the commissioner finds that as to the licensee any one (1) or more of the following causes exist:

(a) Any cause for which issuance of the license could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the commissioner.

(1) Upon suspension or revocation of any such license the commissioner shall forthwith notify the licensee thereof in accordance with this Act either in person or by mail addressed to the licensee at his address last of record with the commissioner. Notice by mail shall be deemed effectuated when so mailed. The commissioner shall give like notice to the insurer represented by the agent, in the case of an agent's license, and to the employer in the case of a solicitor's license.

(2) Suspension or revocation of the license of an agent shall automatically suspend the licenses of all solicitors employed by him.

(3) The commissioner shall not again issue a license under this code to or as to any person whose license has been revoked, until after expiration of one (1) year and thereafter not until such person again qualifies therefor in accordance with the applicable provisions of this code. A person whose license has been revoked twice shall not again be eligible for any license under this code.

(4) If the license of a firm or corporation is so suspended or revoked, no member of such firm, or officer or director of such corporation, shall be licensed or be designated in or as to any license to exercise the powers thereof during the period of such suspension or revocation, unless the commissioner determines upon substantial evidence that such member, officer, or director was not personally at fault and did not acquiesce in the matter on account of which the license was suspended or revoked.

Section 244. KRS 304.12-120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If, after a hearing thereon in accordance with subtitle 2 of this code of which notice of such hearing and of the charges against him were given such person, the commissioner finds that any person in this state has engaged or is engaging in any act or practice defined in or prohibited under this subtitle, the commissioner shall order such person to desist from such act or practice.

(2) Such desist order shall become final upon expiration of the time allowed for appeals from the commissioner's orders, if no such appeal is taken, or, in event of such an appeal, upon final decision of the court if the court affirms the commissioner's order or dismisses the appeal. An intervenor in such hearing shall have the right to appeal as provided in subsection (3) of KRS 304.12-130.

(3) In event of such an appeal, to the extent that the commissioner's order is affirmed, the court shall issue its own order commanding obedience to the terms of the commissioner's order.

(4) No order of the commissioner pursuant to this section or order of court to enforce it shall in any way relieve or absolve any person affected by such order from any other liability, penalty, or forfeiture under law.

Section 245. KRS 304.12-130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If the commissioner believes that any person engaged in the insurance business is engaging in this state in any method of competition or in any act or practice in the conduct of such business which is not defined in this subtitle but that such method of competition is unfair, deceptive, or not in the public interest, or that such act or practice is unfair or deceptive and that a proceeding by him in respect thereto would be in the public interest, he shall, after notice and a hearing in accordance with subtitle 2 of which notice of the hearing and of the charges against him are given such person , make a final order written report of his findings of fact relative to such charges and serve a copy thereof upon such person and any intervenor at the hearing.

(2) If such final order report charges a violation of this subtitle and if such method of competition, act or practice has not been discontinued, the commissioner may, or through the attorney general, at any time after the service of such final order report , cause an action to be instituted to enjoin and restrain such person from engaging in such method, act, or practice. In such action the court may grant a restraining order or injunction upon such terms as may be just; but the people of this commonwealth shall not be required to give security before the issuance of any such order or injunction. If a stenographic record of the proceedings in the hearing before the commissioner was made, a certified transcript thereof including all evidence taken and the report and findings shall be received in evidence in such action.

(3) If the commissioner's final order report made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section or order on hearing made pursuant to KRS 304.12-120 does not charge a violation of this subtitle, then any intervenor in the proceedings may appeal therefrom within the time and in the manner provided in this code for appeals from the commissioner generally.

Section 246. KRS 304.13-140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to rules and regulations which have been approved by the commissioner as reasonable, each rating organization shall permit any insurer to be a subscriber to its rating services for any kind of insurance, subdivision, or class of risk or a part or combination thereof for which it is authorized to act as a rating organization. Notice of proposed changes in such rules and regulations shall be given to subscribers. Each rating organization shall furnish its rating services without discrimination to its subscribers.

(2) The reasonableness of any rule or regulation in its application to subscribers, or the refusal of any rating organization to admit an insurer as a subscriber, shall, at the request of any subscriber or any such insurer, be reviewed by the commissioner at a hearing held in accordance with subtitle 2 upon at least ten (10) days' written notice to such rating organization and to such subscriber or insurer. If the commissioner finds that such rule or regulation is unreasonable in its application to subscribers, he shall order that such rule or regulation shall not be applicable to subscribers. If the rating organization fails to grant or reject an insurer's application for subscribership within thirty (30) days after it was made, the insurer may request a review by the commissioner as if the application had been rejected. If the commissioner finds after hearing in accordance with subtitle 2 that the insurer has been refused admittance to the rating organization as a subscriber without justification, he shall order the rating organization to admit the insurer as a subscriber. If he finds that the action of the rating organization was justified, he shall make an order affirming its action.

Section 247. KRS 304.13-210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any member of or subscriber to a rating organization may appeal to the commissioner from the action or decision of such rating organization in approving or rejecting any proposed change in or addition to the filings of such rating organization.

(2) The commissioner shall, after a hearing held in accordance with subtitle 2 of this code upon not less than ten (10) days' written notice to the appellant and to the rating organization, issue an order approving the action or decision of the rating organization or directing it to give further consideration to such proposal; or if the appeal is from the action or decision of the rating organization in rejecting a proposed addition to its filings, he may, in the event he finds that such action or decision was unreasonable, issue an order directing the rating organization to make an addition to its filings within a reasonable time after the issuance of such order.

Section 248. KRS 304.13-220 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person or organization in interest, aggrieved with respect to any filing which is in effect may make written application to the commissioner for a hearing thereon as provided by subtitle 2 of this code, except that the insurer or rating organization that made the filing shall not be authorized to proceed under this section. Such application shall specify the grounds to be relied upon by the applicant.

(2) If the commissioner finds that the application is made in good faith, that the applicant would be so aggrieved if his grounds are established, and that such grounds otherwise justify holding such a hearing, he shall, within twenty (20) thirty (30) days after receipt of such application, hold a hearing upon not less than twenty (20) ten (10) days' written notice to the applicant and to every insurer and rating organization which made such filing.

(3) If, after such hearing, the commissioner finds that the filing does not meet the requirements of this subtitle, he shall issue an order specifying in what respects he finds that such filing fails to meet the requirements of this subtitle, and stating when, within a reasonable period thereafter, such filing shall be deemed no longer effective. Copies of the order shall be sent to the applicant and to every such insurer and rating organization. The order shall not affect any contract or policy made or issued prior to the expiration of the period set forth in the order.

Section 249. KRS 304.13-230 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every rating organization and every insurer which makes its own rates shall, with a reasonable time after receiving written request therefor and upon payment of such reasonable charge as it may make, furnish to any insured affected by a rate made by it, or to the authorized representative of such insured, all pertinent information as to such rate.

(2) Every rating organization and every insurer which makes its own rates shall provide within this state reasonable means whereby any person aggrieved by the application of its rating system may be heard, in person or by his authorized representative, on his written request to review the manner in which such rating system has been applied in connection with the insurance afforded him. If the rating organization or insurer fails to grant or reject such request within thirty (30) days after it is made, the applicant may proceed in the same manner as if his application has been rejected. Any party part affected by the action of such rating organization or such insurer on such request may, within thirty (30) days after written notice of such action, appeal to the commissioner, who, after a hearing held in accordance with subtitle 2 upon not less than ten (10) days' written notice to the appellant and to such rating organization or insurer, may affirm or reverse such action.

Section 250. KRS 304.24-280 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No insurer shall hereafter make any contract whereby any person is granted or is to enjoy in fact the management of the insurer to the substantial exclusion of its board of directors, or to have the controlling or pre-emptive right to produce substantially all insurance business for the insurer, or, if an officer, director or otherwise part of the insurer's management, is to receive any commission, bonus or compensation based upon the volume of the insurer's business or transactions, unless the contract is filed with and approved by the commissioner. The contract shall be deemed approved unless disapproved by the commissioner within twenty (20) days after date of filing, subject to such reasonable extension of time as the commissioner may require by notice given within such twenty (20) days. Any disapproval shall be delivered to the insurer in writing, stating the grounds therefor.

(2) Any such contract shall provide that any such manager or producer of its business shall within ninety (90) days after expiration of each calendar year furnish the insurer's board of directors a written statement of amounts received under or on account of the contract and amounts expended thereunder during such calendar year, including the emoluments received therefrom by the respective directors, officers, and other principal management personnel of the manager or producer, and with such classification of items and further detail as the insurer's board of directors may reasonably require.

(3) The commissioner shall disapprove any such contract if he finds that it:

(a) Subjects the insurer to excessive charges; or

(b) Is to extend for any unreasonable length of time; or

(c) Does not contain fair and adequate standards of performance, or

(d) Contains other inequitable provision or provisions which impair the proper interests of stockholders or policyholders of the insurer.

(4) The commissioner may, after a hearing held thereon in accordance with subtitle 2, withdraw his approval of any such contract theretofore approved by him, if he finds that the bases of his original approval no longer exist, or that the contract has in actual operation, shown itself to be subject to disapproval on any of the grounds referred to in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) This section does not apply as to contracts entered into prior to June 18, 1970, nor to extensions or amendments to such contracts, nor to relationships and agreements between parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates.

Section 251. KRS 304.29-320 is amended to read as follows:

He shall at once issue a written notice to the society requiring that the deficiency or deficiencies which exist are corrected. After such notice the society shall have a thirty-day period in which to comply with the commissioner's request for correction, and if the society fails to comply the commissioner shall notify the society of his findings of noncompliance and require the society to show cause at a hearing on a date named why its license should not be suspended, revoked or refused. Such notification and hearing shall be in accordance with this Act. If on such date the society does not present good and sufficient reason why its authority to do business in this state should not be suspended, revoked or refused, he may suspend or refuse the license of the society to do business in this state until satisfactory evidence is furnished to him that such suspension or refusal should be withdrawn or he may revoke the authority of the society to do business in this state.

(2) Nothing contained in this section shall be taken or construed as preventing any such society from continuing in good faith all contracts made in this state during the time such society was legally authorized to transact business herein.

Section 252. KRS 304.29-370 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may refuse to issue or renew any insurance agent's license if in his judgment the proposed licensee is not trustworthy and competent to act as such agent, or has given cause for revocation or suspension of such license, or has failed to comply with any prerequisite for the issuance or renewal, as the case may be, of such license.

(2) Every license issued pursuant to KRS 304.29-330 to 304.29-390, inclusive, and every renewal thereof, shall expire on December 31 of the year following the calendar year in which such license or renewal license was issued.

(3) If the application for a renewal license has been filed with the commissioner on or before December 31 of the year in which the existing license is to expire, such applicant named in such existing license may continue to act as insurance agent under such existing license, unless such license is revoked or suspended, until the issuance by the commissioner of the renewal license or until the expiration of five (5) days after he has refused to renew such license and has served written notice of such refusal on the applicant. If the applicant, within thirty (30) days after which such notice is given, notifies the commissioner in writing of his request for a hearing on such refusal, the commissioner shall, within twenty (20) days a reasonable time after receipt of such notice, grant such hearing, and he may, in his discretion, re-instate such license. Such notice and hearing shall be scheduled and conducted in accordance with subtitle 2 of this code.

(4) Any such renewal license of an insurance agent may be issued upon the application of the society named in the existing license. Such application shall be in the form or forms prescribed by the commissioner and shall contain such information as he may require. Such application shall contain a certificate executed by the president, or by a vice president, a secretary, an assistant secretary, or corresponding officer by whatever name known, or by an employe expressly designated and authorized to execute such certificate of a domestic or foreign society or by the United States manager of an alien society, stating that the addresses therein given of the agents of such society for whom renewal licenses are requested therein have been verified in each instance immediately preceding the preparation of the application. Notwithstanding the filing of such application, the commissioner may, after reasonable notice of any such society, require that any or all agents of such society to be named as licensees in renewal licenses execute and file separate applications for the renewal of such licenses and he may also require that each such application be accompanied by the certificate specified in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of KRS 304.29-360.

Section 253. KRS 304.30-050 is amended to read as follows:

(e) Such company has been rebating part of the service charge as allowed and permitted herein to any insurance agent or any employe of an insurance agent or to any other person as an inducement to the financing of any insurance policy with the premium finance company.

(2) Before the commissioner shall revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license of any premium finance company, he shall give to such person notice and an opportunity to be fully heard and to introduce evidence in his behalf at a hearing held as provided for in subtitle 2 of this code. In lieu of revoking or suspending the license for any of the causes enumerated in the section, after hearing as herein provided, the commissioner may subject such company to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each offense when in his judgment he finds that the public interest would not be harmed by the continued operation of such company. The amount of any such penalty shall be paid by such company through the office of the commissioner to the state treasurer. At any hearing provided by this section, the commissioner shall have authority to administer oaths to witnesses.

(3) If the commissioner refuses to issue or renew any license or if any applicant or licensee is aggrieved by any action of the commissioner, said applicant or licensee shall have the right to a hearing and appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court, within thirty (30) days after any order, decision or finding by the commissioner as provided for in KRS 304.2-370.

When the annual statement of a corporation subject to the provisions of this subtitle shall have been filed and all fees due from the corporation shall have been paid, the corporation's certificate of authority to do business in this state shall automatically be extended until such time as the commissioner refuses to relicense the corporation after proceedings in accordance with subtitle 2 of this code. When the fee involved in the renewal of an agent's license shall have been paid by the corporation, or the individual agent, the license shall automatically be extended until such time as the commissioner refuses to renew the license after proceedings in accordance with subtitle 2 of this code.

Section 255. KRS 304.32-230 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner shall not make public the results of any examination or investigation of any corporation found to be insolvent, or with its capital impaired, prior to suspending or revoking the authority of the corporation to do business in this state. If the commissioner determines, after examination, hearing in accordance with subtitle 2 of this code, or other evidence, that a corporation is in an unsound condition, or has failed to comply with the law, or with the provisions of this subtitle, or that its condition is, or its methods are, such as to render its operations hazardous to the public, or to its subscribers, or that its actual assets, exclusive of its capital, are less than its liabilities, or if its officers or agents refuse to submit to examination, or to perform any acts relative thereto, or refuse on behalf of the corporation to pay the examination charges, he shall suspend or revoke all certificates of authority granted to the corporation, and to its officers or agents, and shall cause notice to be published in accordance with KRS chapter 424, and no solicitation of new business shall be done by it or its agents in this state, while such default or disability continues, nor until its authority to do business is restored. Before suspending or revoking the certificate of authority of any corporation, unless it is insolvent or its capital impaired, the commissioner shall grant fifteen (15) days in which to show cause why action should not be taken.

(2) A corporation whose certificate of authority has been suspended or revoked by the commissioner, may appeal, within thirty (30) days to the Franklin County Circuit Court as provided for in KRS 304.2-370. Upon filing of the appeal, the court shall cause the records and orders of the commissioner to be brought before it, and upon hearing the case de novo, shall by its final decree either affirm, reverse, or vacate the order of the commissioner.

appealing shall furnish a bond, with sureties, satisfactory to the court, in any amount the court determines to be just and proper, conditioned to pay to the state and to any and all persons any and all loss that may be sustained by reason of the stay or suspension of the commissioner's order. During the period allowed for taking appeal, the publication of notice of the revocation or suspension of license of the corporation as provided by this section shall not be made. If the order of the commissioner is stayed or suspended by order of the court, publication shall not be made until after the discharge of the stay of order or until the affirmation of the order of revocation or suspension.

(4) If, upon appeal, trial is by jury, the court shall submit the cause to the jury upon special interrogatories covering the matters in issue, and if the jury finds the corporation is insolvent because of obligations which exceed its assets, the court may enjoin it from further exercising corporate rights, privileges, or franchises in this state.

(4) (5) (a) If there is a finding of insolvency, the commissioner shall have and exercise all of the powers and authorities set forth in subtitle 33.

(b) If no charge of insolvency is made, or, if made, is not established by the verdict of the jury, but it shall be found by the verdict that the corporation has exceeded its corporate powers or failed to comply with any provision of this subtitle or has done or committed any act for which its license may be revoked or suspended under any provision of this subtitle, or has conducted its business unlawfully or fraudulently, the court may enjoin and restrain it from the commission of such further acts, and if the corporation fails to cease and desist within the time specified by the court, it may be perpetually enjoined from doing any further business in this state. Pending the trial if no bond is furnished as provided, upon motion of the attorney general and upon notice to the corporation, the court may appoint one or more temporary receivers, grant an injunction restraining it and its officers from collecting any debt or demand, and from paying out or in any way transferring or delivering to any person any money, property, or effects, during the pendency of the proceeding except by direction of the court. An appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeals from the circuit court as in other cases; and it shall be the duty of the circuit court and of the Court of Appeals to advance the hearing of matters as far as justice and the business of the court permit.

Section 256. KRS 304.33-110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Summary order after hearing. Whenever the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe, and determines, after a hearing held as prescribed in subsection (2) of this section, that any insurer has committed or engaged in, or is committing or engaging in or is about to commit or engage in any act, practice or transaction that would subject it to formal delinquency proceedings under this subtitle, he may make and serve upon the insurer and any other persons involved, such orders other than seizure orders under KRS 304.33-120 as are reasonably necessary to correct, eliminate or remedy such conduct, condition or ground. If the order is for a restoration of or addition to capital, it shall be carried out as provided in KRS 304.24-350.

(1) Within sixty (60) days after a complaint is filed, unless the commission has issued an order dismissing the complaint or stating the terms of a conciliation agreement or within thirty (30) days after an application for review is filed under subsection (3) of KRS 344.200, the commission shall serve on the respondent by registered or certified mail a written notice, together with a copy of the complaint as it may have been amended, requiring the respondent to answer the allegations of the complaint at a hearing scheduled and conducted in accordance with this Act before one or more members of the commission or an individual designated pursuant to its rules and this Act, at a time and place specified in the notice. A copy of the notice shall be furnished to the complainant, the attorney general, and such other public officers and persons as the commission deems proper.

(2) A member of the commission who filed the complaint or endeavored to eliminate the alleged unlawful practice by conference, conciliation or persuasion, shall not participate in the hearing or in the subsequent deliberation of the commission.

(2) (3) The respondent may file an answer with the commission by registered or certified mail not less than five (5) days before the hearing date. The commission or the complainant may amend a complaint and the respondent may amend an answer at any time prior to the issuance of an order based on the complaint, but no order shall be issued unless the respondent has had the opportunity of a hearing on the complaint or amendment on which the order is based.

(3) (4) The case in support of the complaint shall be presented before the commission by one of its attorneys or staff. Efforts at conference, conciliation, and persuasion shall not be received in evidence.

(4) (5) A respondent who has filed an answer or whose default in answering has been set aside for good cause shown may appear at the hearing, may examine and cross-examine witnesses and the complainant, and may offer evidence. The complainant, the attorney general, and, in the discretion of the commission, any person may intervene in accordance with this Act, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and present evidence.

(5) (6) If the respondent fails to answer the complaint, the commission may enter his default. Unless the default is set aside for good cause shown, the hearing may proceed on the evidence in support of the complaint.

(6) (7) Testimony taken at the hearing shall be under oath and transcribed and the commission shall keep a record of the proceedings as required by this Act. After the hearing, in its discretion, the commission upon notice to all parties with an opportunity to be present may take further evidence or hear argument.

Section 350. KRS 345.070 is amended to read as follows:

Violations of the provisions of KRS 345.050 shall be deemed to be unfair labor practices remedial by the board in the following manner.

(1) Whenever it is charged by a public employer or a labor organization that any person has engaged in or is engaging in any such unfair labor practices, the board, or any agent designated by the board for such purposes, shall issue and cause to be served upon the person a copy of the charges and a notice of hearing before the board or a member thereof, or before a designated agent, at a place therein fixed , not less than five days after serving of the copy of the charges by the board . Such notice and hearing shall be in accordance with this Act. Any charge may be amended by the charging party, at any time prior to the issuance of an order based thereon, provided that the charged party is not unfairly prejudiced thereby. The person upon whom the charge is served may file an answer to the charge. The charging party and the person charged shall appear in person or otherwise and give testimony at the place and time fixed in the notice of hearing. In the discretion of the member or agent conducting the hearing or the board, any other person may be allowed to intervene in the proceeding and to present testimony. In any hearing the board shall not be bound by the rules of evidence prevailing in the courts.

(2) The testimony taken by the member, agent or the board shall be reduced to writing and filed with the board. Thereafter the board upon notice may take further testimony or hear argument. If upon the preponderance of the testimony taken the board is of the opinion that any person named in the charge has engaged in or is engaging in an unfair labor practice, then it shall make its final order in accordance with this Act state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served on the person an order requiring him to cease and desist from the unfair labor practice, and to take such affirmative action including reinstatement of fire fighters with or without back pay, as will effectuate the policies of this chapter. The order may further require the person to make reports from time to time showing the extent to which he has complied with the order. If upon the preponderance of the testimony taken the board is not of the opinion that the person named in the charge has engaged in or is engaging in the unfair labor practice, then the board shall state its finding of fact and shall issue an order dismissing the complaint. No order shall issue based upon any unfair labor practice occurring more than six months prior to the filing of the charge with the board, unless the person aggrieved thereby was prevented from filing the charge by reason of service in the armed forces, in which event, the six-month period shall be computed from the day of his discharge. No order of the board shall require the reinstatement of any individual as a fire fighter who has been suspended or discharged, or the payment to him of any back pay, if the individual was suspended or discharged for cause.

(3) Until the record in a case has been filed in court, the board at any time, upon reasonable notice and in such manner as it deems proper, may modify or set aside, in whole or in part, any finding or order made or issued by it.

(4) The board or the charging party may petition for the enforcement of the order and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order, and shall file in the circuit court such petition in accordance with this Act. for the county in which the violation occurred, the record in the proceedings. Upon the filing of the petition, the circuit court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon the charged party, and thereupon shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and shall grant such temporary or permanent relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, enforcing modifying, enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the board. No objection that has not been urged before the board, its member or agent, shall be considered by the court, unless the failure or neglect to urge the objection is excused because of extraordinary circumstances. The findings of the board with respect to questions of fact if supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole shall be conclusive. If either party applies to the circuit court for leave to present additional evidence and shows to the satisfaction of the circuit court that the additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to present it in the hearing before the board, its member or agent, the court may order the additional evidence to be taken before the board, its member or agent, and to be made a part of the record. The board may modify its findings as to the facts, or make new findings, by reason of additional evidence so taken and filed, and it shall file the modifying or new findings, which findings with respect to questions of fact if supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole shall be conclusive, and shall file its recommendations, if any, for the modification or setting aside of its original order. Upon the filing of the record (with it) the jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment and decree shall be final, except that the same shall be subject to review by the Court of Appeals in accordance with the general court rules.

(5) Any person aggrieved by a final order of the board granting or denying in whole or in part the relief sought may obtain a review of such order in the court by filing in the circuit court a petition in accordance with this Act. complaint praying that the order of the board be modified or set aside, with copy of the complaint filed with the board, and thereupon the aggrieved party shall file in the court the record in the proceeding, certified by the board. Upon the filing of the complaint, the court shall proceed in the same manner as under subsection (4), and shall grant to the board such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, enforcing modifying, enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the board. The findings of the board with respect to questions of fact if supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole shall be conclusive.

(6) The commencement of proceedings under subsections (4) and (5) shall not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the board's order.

(7) Complaints filed under this chapter shall be heard expeditiously by the court to which presented, and shall take precedence over all other civil matters except earlier matters of the same character.

Section 351. KRS 345.080 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If after a reasonable period, but in no event less than thirty days, of negotiations over the terms of a new collective bargaining agreement or modifications in an existing agreement the parties to the negotiations are deadlocked, either party or the parties jointly may petition the board, by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail, to initiate fact finding.

(2) Upon receipt of a petition to initiate fact finding, the commissioner shall cause an investigation to determine whether or not the parties are deadlocked in their negotiations. During the course of this investigation, the commissioner is empowered to utilize his office in an effort to effectuate a settlement between the parties through mediation and conciliation.

(3) Upon completion of the commissioner's investigation, and if a settlement between the parties has still not been reached, the commissioner shall within five days appoint a qualified and disinterested person as the impartial chairman of a three-man panel to function as the fact finders. In addition to the impartial chairman, the other two members of the panel shall be one member named by the labor organization and one by the employer, parties to the deadlocked negotiations.

(4) Upon consultation with the other members of the panel, the impartial chairman shall establish dates and places for public hearings. Whenever feasible, public hearings shall be held within the jurisdiction in which the employer is located. Such hearings shall be conducted in accordance with this Act. The panel may subpoena witnesses, and a written transcript of the hearing shall be made. Upon completion of the hearings the panel shall, by majority decision, make written findings of fact and recommendations for solution of the dispute. The panel shall cause all of its written findings, recommendations and opinions to be served on the employer and labor organization (parties) and same shall be released to the public. Expenses incurred by the three-man panel in this section shall be paid by the parties involved in the labor dispute.

(5) The commissioner may adopt, promulgate, amend and rescind such rules and regulations as he deems necessary and administratively feasible not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and this Act to carry out his responsibilities over the fact-finding procedures set forth in this section. However, unless the parties agree to extend the time for the hearings, they must be completed with recommendations from the fact-finding panel, within 120 days from the date the petition to initiate the fact-finding procedure was received by the commissioner.

Section 352. KRS 345.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created and established a state labor relations board to assist in resolving disputes between public employers and fire fighters or their labor organization which shall be composed of three members appointed by the governor, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, and one for a term of four years. The governor shall designate one member to serve as chairman of the board. Thereafter, upon the expiration of the term of any member, members shall be appointed for four-year terms by the governor.

(2) Each member of the board shall have been an elector in this state for at least one year next preceding his appointment. Any member may be removed by the governor for cause, shown in a public hearing scheduled and conducted in accordance with this Act after the accused has been given notice as prescribed in this Act a copy of the charges made and has had an opportunity to answer such charges. The governor shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term. No member shall receive a salary but each member shall be paid $50 and expenses for each day during which he is engaged in the duties of the board. The board is authorized to hold hearings at any place in this state*; but all such hearings shall be scheduled and conducted in accordance with this Act and such procedures in accordance therewith as the Board may adopt after hearing pursuant to subsection (7) of this section*. Any and all expenses incurred by the labor relations board shall be shared by all parties concerned in the dispute.

(3) The board shall appoint such employes as may be necessary to carry out the work of the board. All files, records and documents accumulated by the board shall be kept in offices provided by the board. All decisions shall be made by a majority of the board.

(4) To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties prescribed by this chapter, the board may subpoena witnesses, issue subpoenas to require the production of books, papers, records and documents which may be needed as evidence in any matter under inquiry, and may administer oaths and affirmations.

(5) In case of neglect or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the circuit court of the county in which the investigations or the public hearings are taking place, upon application by the board may issue an order requiring such person to appear before the board, any member or agent, to produce evidence or give testimony about the matter under investigation. A failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(6) Any subpoena, notice of hearing or other process or notice of the board issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be given in accordance with this Act may be served personally, by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail or by leaving a copy at the principal office or place of residence of the respondent required to be served . A return, made and verified by the individual making such service and setting forth the manner of such service is proof of service and a returned post-office receipt, when certified or registered mail is used, is proof of service. All process of any court to which application may be made under the provisions of this chapter may be served in the county wherein the persons required to be served reside or may be found.

(7) The board shall adopt, promulgate, amend or rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary and administratively feasible to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Public hearings shall be held by the board on any proposed rule or regulation of general applicability designed to implement, interpret or prescribe policy, procedure or practice requirements under the provisions of this chapter and on any proposed change in an existing rule or regulation. Reasonable notice shall be given prior to such hearings, which shall include the time, place and nature of such hearing and also the terms or substance of the proposed rule or regulation or the changes of such rule or regulation.

Section 353. KRS 350.050 is amended to read as follows:

(3) To adopt, without hearing, rules and regulations with respect to the filing of reports, the issuance of permits and other matters of procedure and administration;

(4) To examine and pass upon all plans and specifications submitted by the operator for the method of operation, backfilling, grading and for the reclamation of the area of land affected by his operation;

(5) To make investigations or inspections which may be deemed necessary to insure compliance with any provision of this chapter;

(6) To order, through personnel of the department and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the suspension of any permit for failure to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter or any regulations adopted pursuant thereto;

(7) To order, through personnel of the department and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the stopping of any operation that is started without first having secured a permit as required by this chapter.

Section 354. KRS 350.130 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If any of the requirements of this chapter or rules or regulations adopted pursuant thereto or the orders of the department have not been complied with within the time limits set by the department or by this chapter, the department shall cause a notice of noncompliance to be served upon the operator, or where found necessary for the public health, welfare or safety, the secretary shall order the suspension of a permit in accordance with this Act. Such notice or order shall be handed to the operator in person or served by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail addressed to the permanent address shown on the application for a permit. The notice of noncompliance or order of suspension shall specify in what respects the operator has failed to comply with this chapter or the regulations or orders of the department. If the operator has not reached an agreement with the department or has not complied with the requirements set forth in the notice of noncompliance or order of suspension within time limits set therein, the permit may be revoked by order of the department after notice and a hearing in accordance with this Act and the performance bond shall then be forfeited to the department.

(2) When a bond is forfeited pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall give notice to the attorney general, who shall collect the forfeiture.

(3) An operator whose mining permit has been revoked or suspended shall not be eligible to receive another permit or to have suspended permits reinstated until he shall have complied with all the requirements of this chapter in respect to all permits issued him, provided, further, that no operator shall be eligible to receive another permit who has forfeited any bond unless the land for which the bond was forfeited has been reclaimed without cost to the state or the operator has paid such sum as the department finds is adequate to reclaim such lands. The department shall not issue any additional permits to any operator who has repeatedly been in noncompliance or violation of this chapter, or who has had permits revoked on more than three (3) occasions. The department shall issue regulations concerning repeated noncompliance by any operator.

Section 355. KRS 351.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All hearings permitted or required by law to be scheduled and conducted by the department shall be in accordance with this Act. The department, pursuant to this Act, may prescribe rules of procedure and for offering evidence in all matters brought before it, and shall prepare and, on request, furnish to applicants copies of forms of notices and other forms that the department requires to be used, and shall prescribe the manner of serving such notices.

(2) The department shall hold one or more hearings on each matter brought before it. The commissioner, or his authorized representative of the department, may administer oaths. All interested persons shall be given due notice and an opportunity to appear and offer evidence, and to make argument by counsel if desired. The department shall decide each matter in controversy in the manner that seems to it just and reasonable and necessary or desirable for the proper enforcement of KRS 352.510 or 353.050 to 353.130.

Section 356. KRS 351.040 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any party in interest dissatisfied with an order of the department may institute proceedings for judicial review of such order in accordance with this Act. commence an equitable action against the department and other interested parties as defendants, to vacate or set aside, in whole or in part, any such order. The action may be brought in the circuit court of the county where the subject matter involved in the order, or the well or workable coal bed or part thereof, is located. The court may grant relief from any unlawful or unreasonable order of the department, and render such judgment as appears to it to be equitable and just.

(2) The pendency of the action shall not of itself suspend the operation of the order of the department, but during the pendency of the action any party may secure from the court an order suspending or staying the operation of the order of the department pending the action by giving to the other parties adequate security, approved by the court, against loss due to the delay in enforcement of the order, in case the order under review is not set aside, and the court may, without security being given, suspend the operation of the order, in whole or in part, on such terms as it deems just and in accordance with the practice of courts of equity; Provided, however, That the operation of an order pertaining to safety in coal mines shall not be suspended temporarily pending final decision of the court.

(3) Appeals may be taken to the Court of Appeals as in other cases.

Section 357. KRS 351.175 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Within forty-five (45) days after January 1, 1953, and of each year thereafter, the owner, operator, or lessee of each mine shall procure from the department a license to operate such a mine, and such license shall not be transferable. Any owner, operator, or lessee who assumes control of a mine, opens a new mine or reopens an abandoned mine during any calendar year shall procure such license before mining operations are begun.

(2) The license shall be in such printed form as the commissioner may prescribe and when issued shall be kept posted at a conspicuous place near the main entrance of the mine.

(3) Requests for such license shall be made to the department and such requests shall be accompanied by a U.S. postal money order or cashier's check drawn in favor of the state treasurer in the amount of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each mine. When the annual report of the operator and the annual mine map, as required by KRS 351.170 and 352.450, together with a certification from the commissioner of labor that the applicant, except an applicant for a mine license who employs fewer than ten (10) employes, for license has presented positive proof of compliance with the provisions of KRS chapter 342, are properly submitted to the department, the license shall be issued. The commissioner or his accredited agents shall have the authority to extend the time for filing of the map not to exceed an additional forty-five (45) days. Upon receipt of withdrawal of the certification of the commissioner of labor the department shall after notice and hearing in accordance with this Act forthwith revoke any license hereunder issued. Revocation of said license shall be an administrative function of the department. Appeal of said revocation administrative function shall lie in the Fayette Circuit Court in accordance with this Act.

(4) Any owner, operator or lessee operating a mine and who fails to obtain his license as required by this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300) at the discretion of the court. Each day the mine is operated without a license constitutes a separate offense. Jurisdiction for such offenses shall lie in the circuit court of the county in which the offense occurred.

(5) The mine inspector shall have the authority to stop production at the mine of any operator who fails to procure a license or fails to furnish a certification of compensation coverage as required under this section.

(6) The application for a license shall be accompanied by a transportation plan which shall set forth the portions of the state primary road system, if any, over which the applicant proposes to transport minerals extracted in the mining operation. The transportation plan shall specify the legal weight limits for each portion of any such highway or bridge over which the applicant proposes to transport minerals. The transportation plan shall include any proposal by the applicant to obtain a special permit pursuant to the provisions of KRS 189.271 to exceed the weight limits on any highway or bridge. The transportation plan shall contain a certification by a duly authorized official of the department of transportation attesting the accuracy of the transportation plan in regard to the locations and identities of highways and bridges on the state primary road system and the accuracy of the specifications of weight limits on such highways and bridges.

Section 358. KRS 351.320 is amended to read as follows:

No person shall detonate explosives in any blasting operation in which more than five pounds of explosives or the equivalent are used in a single charge unless he has passed an examination, prescribed by the department, which shall test the examinee's skill and knowledge of the principles and practice of blasting operations and the storage, moving, handling and detonation of explosives. Application for examination as a blaster shall be in writing upon a form furnished by the department and shall be accompanied by a fee of ten dollars. If the applicant is successful in passing the examination, a license indicating his competency to detonate explosives shall be issued upon the payment of an additional fee of five dollars. Anything hereinbefore to the contrary notwithstanding, the department shall issue a license without examination to any applicant who shall show to the department that he has, on June 16, 1972, had three years' experience in the handling and use of explosives. Each blaster shall be required to renew his license each year by application to the department, which application shall be accompanied by a fee of three dollars and fifty cents. The commissioner may suspend any license for due cause but no license may be revoked until the licensee has been given notice and granted a hearing in accordance with this Act.

Section 359. KRS 352.390 is amended to read as follows:

The Board of Examiners may revoke the certificate of a mine foreman, assistant mine foreman or fire boss if it is established in the judgment of the board after notice and hearing in accordance with this Act that the holder has become unworthy to hold the certificate by reason of violation of law, intemperate habits, incapacity, abuse of authority, willful failure to comply with the instructions of the mine inspector to obey the mining laws, or for other just cause. The certificate holder against whom charges are made may appear before the board and defend against the charges, and shall have five days' notice in writing of the charges previous to the hearing.

Section 360. KRS 352.510 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In any underground mine before removing any coal or other material or driving any entry or passageway within five hundred feet of any natural gas or petroleum well, or before extending the workings in any mine beneath any tract of land on which such wells are also drilled, or within five hundred feet of any such well or under any tract of land in visible possession of a well operator, the operator shall forward simultaneously to the well operator and to the department of mines and minerals, by certified mail, return receipt requested or by registered mail, a copy of the maps and plans required by law to be filed and kept up to date, showing on the copy of the map or plan its mine workings and projected mine workings beneath the tract of land and within five hundred feet of its outer boundaries. The operator may then proceed with his mining operations in the manner indicated on the copy of the map or plan, but if the conduct of his mining operations nearer than five hundred feet to any such well, whether completed or being drilled, or to any proposed well where a derrick is being constructed for drilling, or proposed well will endanger the use of drilling of the well, the well owner or operator affected may within five days from the receipt of the copy of the map by him and the department, file specific objections in writing to the mining operations within less than five hundred feet of the well, and if the objection is so filed the department shall notify the operator of the character of the objections and fix a time and place for a hearing not more than ten days from the end of said five-day period. At the hearing the operator and the well operator, or such of them as are present or represented, shall proceed to consider the objections and agree upon the character and extent of operations to be conducted within less than five hundred feet of the well so as to satisfy the objections raised and meet the approval of the department and, if no agreement can be reached, the department, after notice and a full hearing, in accordance with KRS 353.200 shall make a decision defining what coal or clay, if any, is necessary to be left for the safe protection of the use and operation of the well. The decision shall be subject to appeal by either party as provided in KRS 351.040. The department shall keep a complete record of all such hearings in accordance with KRS 353.200.

(2) The mine operator shall, every six months, while mining within five hundred feet of the well, bring up to date the maps and plans required by this section, or file new maps and plans complete to date.

Section 361. KRS 353.060 is amended to read as follows:

If the drilling of a well on any tract underlaid with coal-bearing strata will endanger the present or future use or operation of a workable coal bed, the owner or coal operator affected may, within five (5) days from the receipt of the plat by him and by the department, file with the department specific objections in writing to such proposed location, and if the objections are so filed the department shall notify the well operator of the character of the objections and shall fix a time and place for a hearing in accordance with KRS 353.200, not more than ten (10) days after the end of the five-day period, at which hearing the objections shall be considered. At the hearing the well operator and the coal operator or owner, or such of them as are present or represented, shall consider the objections and either agree upon the location as proposed or change it so as to satisfy all objections and meet the approval of the department. Any new location thus selected and agreed upon shall be indicated on a plat in accordance with KRS 353.050 and thereupon the department shall issue to the well operator a drilling permit approving the new location and authorizing the well operator to drill at the location. If the coal operator and well operator, or the owner and well operator, are unable to agree, the department shall, in view of the purposes and intent of this chapter and in compliance therewith, fix a location on the tract as near the proposed location as possible and shall issue to the well operator a permit to drill at the new location. If no objections are filed within the five-day period the department shall immediately issue to the well operator a drilling dwelling permit approving the location and authorizing the well operator to proceed to drill there.

Section 362. KRS 353.200 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall exercise supervision over the drilling, casing, plugging and filling of all wells drilled through workable coal beds and all mining operations in close proximity to any well, and for this purpose shall have access to the records and properties of coal and oil operators whenever necessary.

(2) The department may receive, or may file on its own motion, formal complaints charging that drilling or mining operations are being conducted contrary to the provisions of KRS 353.010, 353.050 to 353.130, or 352.510, or to the order of the department, and shall give notice, schedule and hold formal hearings in accordance with KRS 351.030 on such complaints. Immediately following the hearing, the department shall make its findings of fact and enter such order as in its judgment is necessary to secure the proper administration of KRS 353.010, 353.050 to 353.130, or 352.510.

Section 363. KRS 353.565 is amended to read as follows:

No member of the Commission shall participate in the deliberations of the Commission or vote on any matter before the Commission in which he, his employer, or any business unit in which he has a financial interest is an interested party; provided that a member of the Commission is not prohibited from deliberating or voting on matters of general interest, such as the fixing of statewide spacing patterns, affecting him, his employer, or a business unit in which he has financial interest as a member of a class of persons to be affected by a rule, regulation or order of the Commission. The commission shall not contain more than one (1) representative from any one operator, including subsidiaries or affiliates. Of the four (4) members appointed by the governor, two (2) shall be residents of Eastern Kentucky and two shall be residents of Western Kentucky. Longitude line 84 30' shall be deemed as the division line between Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky.

(2) The members of the commission, except the chairman, shall be appointed for terms of four (4) years each, except that the original appointments shall be for terms of one (1), two (2), three (3) and four (4) years respectively. Each member appointed by the governor shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified. Members may be reappointed by the governor to serve successive terms. The members of the commission, before performing any duty hereunder, shall take oath which shall be certified by the officer administering it. The oath in writing and the certificate shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. Vacancies in the membership appointed by the governor shall be filled by appointment by him and for the unexpired term of the member whose office shall be vacant and such appointment shall be made by the governor within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of such vacancy. Any member appointed by the governor may be removed by the governor in case of incompetency, neglect of duty, gross immorality or malfeasance of office.

(3) The commission shall meet at such times and places as shall be designated by the chairman. The chairman may call a meeting of the commission at any time, and he shall call a meeting of the commission upon the written request of two (2) members. Notification of each meeting shall be given in writing to each member by the chairman at least five (5) days in advance of the meeting. Any three (3) members, one of which may be the chairman, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, including the holding of hearings, as hereinafter provided for. A majority of the commission present shall be required to determine any issue brought before it for decision.

(4) Each member of the commission, except the chairman, shall receive thirty-five dollars ($35) per diem not to exceed one hundred (100) days per calendar year while actually engaged in the performance of his duties as a member of the commission. Each member of the commission, including the chairman, shall also be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of his duties as a member of the commission.

(5) The commission shall execute and carry out, administer and enforce the provisions of KRS 353.651 and 353.652 in the manner provided herein. The commission may make such investigation of records and facilities as it deems proper.

(6) In the event an emergency is found to exist by the commission which, in its judgment, requires the making, changing, renewal, or extension of a rule, regulation, or order made in accordance with this Act, without first having a hearing, such emergency rule, regulation, or order shall have the same validity as if a hearing with respect to the same had been held after due notice. The emergency rule, regulation or order hereby permitted shall remain in force no longer than forty-five (45) days from its effective date, and, in any event, it shall expire when the rule, regulation, or order made after due notice and hearing with respect to the subject matter of such emergency rule, regulation or order becomes effective.

(7) The commission shall have specific authority to:

(a) Make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations and orders reasonably necessary to prevent waste, protect correlative rights, govern the practice and procedure before the commission in accordance with the provisions of this Act and otherwise administer the provisions of KRS 353.651 and 353.652; and

(b) Issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and subpoenas duces tecum for the production of any books, records, maps, charts, diagrams and other pertinent documents, and administer oaths and affirmations to such witnesses, whenever, in the judgment of the commission, it is necessary to do so for the effective discharge of its duties under the provisions of KRS 353.651 and 353.652.

(8) Any interested person may have the commission call a hearing for the purpose of taking action in respect to any matter within the jurisdiction of the commission by making a request therefor in writing. Upon the receipt of any such request, the commission promptly shall give notice and call a hearing thereon, to be scheduled and conducted in accordance with this Act and, after such hearing and with all convenient speed, and in any event within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of such hearing, shall take such action with regard to the subject matter thereof as it may deem appropriate.

(9) Agreements made in the interest of conservation of oil or gas, or both, or for the prevention of waste, between and among owners or operators, or both, owning separate holdings in the same field or pool, or in any area that appears from geologic or other data to be underlaid by a common accumulation of oil or gas, or both, and agreements between and among such owners or operators, or both, and royalty owners therein, for the purpose of bringing about the development and operation of the field, pool or area, or any part thereof, as a unit, and for establishing and carrying out a plan for the cooperative development and operation thereof, when such agreements are approved by the commission, are hereby authorized and shall not be held or construed to violate any of the laws of this state relating to trusts, monopolies, or contracts and combinations in restraint of trade.

(10) Nothing in this section shall be construed as giving to the Commission the right or authority to supersede the authority of the Department in the administration of KRS 353.060.

Section 364. KRS 353.651 is amended to read as follows:

The following provisions of this section shall apply to any deep well:

(1) Drilling units:

(a) The commission shall, after notice and a hearing, regulate the drilling and location of wells in any pool and the production therefrom so as to prevent reasonably avoidable net drainage from each developed unit (that is, drainage which is not equalized by counterdrainage) so that each owner in a pool shall have the right and opportunity to recover his fair and equitable share of the recoverable oil and gas in such pool.

(b) For the prevention of waste, to protect and enforce the correlative rights of the owners in a pool, and to avoid the augmenting and accumulation of risks arising from the drilling of an excessive number of wells, the commission shall, after notice and a hearing, establish drilling units for each pool. The spacing of wells in proved oil and gas fields shall be governed by special rules for that particular field adopted after notice and hearing. Wells drilled in areas not covered by special field rules shall be governed by statewide rules adopted by the commission after notice and hearing. Notice for hearings prescribed herein shall be given pursuant to KRS 353.680 and notice for hearings governing drilling units for a particular pool or special field rules shall be given to all persons reasonably known to the Commission to own an interest in the oil and gas therein.

(c) Each well permitted to be drilled upon any drilling unit shall be drilled in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the commission and in accordance with a spacing pattern fixed by the commission for the pool in which the well is located, with such exceptions as may be reasonably necessary where it is shown, in accordance with regulations adopted by the commission, that the unit is partly outside the pool or for some other reason a well otherwise located on the unit would not be likely to produce in paying quantities, or topographical conditions are such as to make the drilling at such location unduly burdensome. Whenever an exception is granted, the commission shall take such action as will offset any advantage which the person securing the exception may have over other owners by reason of the drilling of the well as an exception.

(d) No drilling unit established by the commission shall be smaller than the maximum area which can be drained efficiently by one deep well so as to produce the reasonable maximum recoverable oil or gas in such area, unless an exception is granted in accordance with regulations adopted by the commission.

(e) An order establishing drilling units may be modified, altered, extended, amended or vacated by the commission after notice and hearing as prescribed above.

(2) Pooling of interests in drilling units:

(a) When two or more separately owned tracts are embraced within a drilling unit, or when there are separately owned interests in all or a part of a drilling unit, the interested persons may pool their tracts or interests for the development and operation of the drilling unit. In the absence of voluntary pooling and upon application of any operator having an interest in the drilling unit, and after the commission has given notice to all persons reasonably known to own an interest in the oil or gas in the drilling unit, and after a hearing as provided for in this chapter, the commission shall enter an order pooling all tracts or interests in the drilling unit for the development and operation thereof and for the sharing production therefrom. Each such pooling order shall be upon terms and conditions which are just and reasonable.

(b) All operations, including, but not limited to, the commencement, drilling or operation of a deep well, upon any portion of a drilling unit for which a pooling order has been entered, shall be deemed for all purposes the conduct of such operations upon each separately owned tract in the drilling unit by the several owners thereof. That portion of the production allocated to a separately owned tract included in a drilling unit shall, when produced, be deemed for all purposes to have been actually produced from such tract by a deep well drilled thereon.

(c) Any pooling order under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall authorize the drilling and operation of a deep well for the production of oil or gas from the pooled acreage; shall designate the operator to drill and operate such deep well; shall prescribe the time and manner in which all owners of operating interests in the pooled tracts or portions of tracts may elect to participate therein; shall provide that all reasonable costs and expenses of drilling, completing, equipping, operating, plugging and abandoning such deep well shall be borne, and all production therefrom shared, by all owners of operating interests in proportion to the acreage in the pooled tracts owned or under lease to each owner; and shall make provision for payment of all reasonable costs thereof, including reasonable charge for supervision and for interest on past due accounts, by all those who elect to participate therein. Upon the application of any operator having an interest in the drilling unit, the person or persons selected to drill and operate said deep well shall be determined by competitive bids under the procedure set out in KRS 74.260.

(d) Upon request, any such pooling order shall provide just and equitable alternatives whereby an owner of an operating interest who does not elect to participate in the risk and cost of the drilling of a deep well may elect to surrender his interest or a portion thereof to the participating owners on a reasonable basis and for a reasonable consideration, which, if not agreed upon, shall be determined by the commission; or to participate in the drilling of the deep well on a limited or carried basis on terms and conditions which, if not agreed upon, shall be determined by the commission to be just and reasonable.

(e) If an operator owning an interest in a pooled drilling unit elects not to participate in the risk and cost of drilling of a deep well thereon, and another operator owning an interest therein, shall drill and operate, or pay the costs of drilling and operating a deep well as provided in the Commission order, then such operating owner shall be entitled to the share of production from the tracts or portions thereof accruing to the interest of such nonparticipating owner, exclusive of any royalty or overriding royalty reserved in any leases, assignments thereof or agreements relating thereto, of such tracts or portions thereof, or exclusive of one-eighth (1/8) of the production attributable to all unleased tracts or portions thereof, until the market value of such nonparticipating owner's share of the production, exclusive of such royalty, overriding royalty or one-eighth (1/8) of production, equals one and one-fourth (1 1/4) times the share of such costs payable by or charged to the interest of such nonparticipating owner.

(f) If a dispute shall arise as to the costs of drilling and operating a deep well, the commission shall determine and apportion the costs, within ninety (90) days from the date of written notification to the commission of the existence of such dispute.

(3) This section shall not apply to wells drilled, deepened or reopened for the injection of water, gas or other fluids into any sub-surface formation.

In the event that more than three (3) days is required for the production of the records requested, the custodian shall, within three (3) days from the date of the request, notify the applicant of this fact and provide a written, detailed explanation as to the reason for the delay.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

(1) In all cases in which a person has the right to inspect any public records, he also has the right to make memoranda or abstracts of the record or he may request a copy or copies of the record from the custodian. Requests for copies of public records may be made in person or submitted in writing.

(2) The official custodian of any public records may establish a reasonable fee for making copies which shall not exceed the actual cost of making such copies which shall not include the cost of staff time used in locating and copying the records. Where fees for copies of public records are specifically prescribed by law, such fees shall apply.

(3) Fees shall not be charged, however, under the following circumstances:

(a) The person requesting the record is an indigent individual.

(b) The records located are determined by the official custodian to be exempt from public disclosure.

(4) In situations where the fees for copies of public records will exceed twenty-five dollars ($25), the public agency may require prepayment of the anticipated cost of the records as a condition precedent to reproduction of the records.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

(1) Each public agency shall adopt and publish rules and regulations in conformity with this Act and pertaining to the accessibility of public records. Such rules and regulations shall be consonant with the intent of this Act to provide full access to public records, to protect public records from damage or disorganization, and to prevent excessive interference with other essential functions of the agencies. Such rules and regulations shall provide for the fullest assistance to inquiries and the most timely possible action on requests for records or information. These rules and regulations shall serve as guidelines to the general public and they shall include but are not limited to:

(a) A current index providing identifying information as to any type of public record within the jurisdiction of the agency. Confidential records shall be identified and listed separately.

(b) The times and places such records are available.

(c) The persons from whom such records may be obtained.

(d) The fees, to the extent authorized by this Act or other statute, for copies of public records.

(e) The procedures to be followed in requesting public records.

(f) Appeal rights and procedures as set forth by this Act, should a person be denied access to any public record.

(g) Each amendment or revision to, or repeal of any of the foregoing.

(2) Each public agency shall display a copy of its rules and regulations pertaining to public records in a prominent location accessible to the public in every separate office maintained by the agency.

(3) A copy of these rules and regulations shall be furnished free of charge to any person upon request.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

(1) The following public records shall be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of this statute:

(a) Information of a personal nature where the public disclosure thereof would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the public interest by clear evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance.

(b) Records confidentially disclosed to an agency and compiled and maintained for the regulation of commercial enterprise, including trade secrets, or for the grant or review of a license to do business and if openly disclosed would permit an unfair advantage to competitors of the subject enterprise. This exemption shall not, however apply to records the disclosure or publication of which is directed by other statute.

(c) Public records pertaining to a prospective business or industry where no previous public disclosure has been made of the business' or industry's interest in locating in, relocating within or expanding within the Commonwealth. Provided, however, that this exemption shall not include those records pertaining to application to agencies for permits or licenses necessary to do business or to expand business operations within the state, except as provided in paragraph (b) above.

(d) The contents of real estate appraisals, engineering or feasibility estimates and evaluations made by or for a public agency relative to acquisition of property, until such time as all of the property has been acquired; provided, however, the law of eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

(e) Test questions, scoring keys and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment or academic examination before the exam is given or if it is to be given again.

(f) Records of law enforcement agencies or agencies involved in administrative adjudication, that were compiled in the process of detecting and investigating statutory or regulatory violations if the disclosure of the information would harm the agency by revealing the identity of informants not otherwise known or by premature release of information to be used in a prospective law enforcement action or administrative adjudication. Unless exempted by other provisions of this Act or by other statutes, public records exempted under this provision shall be open after enforcement action is completed or a decision is made to take no action. Provided, however, that the exemptions provided by this subsection shall not be used by the custodian of the records to delay or impede the exercise of rights granted by this Act.

(g) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and memoranda in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended, except that a specific record shall not be exempt when used by a public agency in connection with a public agency's action, or where the record or portion thereof contains material of a primarily factual nature.

(h) All public records or information the disclosure of which is prohibited by federal law or regulation.

(i) Public records or information the disclosure of which is prohibited or restricted or otherwise made confidential by Kentucky statute.

(2) No exemption in this section shall be construed to restrict disclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person.

(3) If any public record contains material which is not exempt under this section, the public agency shall separate the exempt and make the non-exempt material available for examination.

(4) The provisions of this section shall in no way prohibit or limit the exchange of public records or the sharing of information between public agencies when the exchange is serving a legitimate governmental need or necessary in the performance of a legitimate government function.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

(1) Each public agency, upon any request for records made under this Act, shall determine within three (3) days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after the receipt of any such request whether to comply with the request and shall notify in writing the person making the request, within the three (3) day period, of its decision. An agency response denying, in whole or in part, inspection of any record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld. The response shall be issued by the official custodian or under his authority, and it shall constitute final agency action.

(2) A copy of the written response denying inspection of a public record shall be forwarded immediately by the agency to the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. If requested by the person seeking inspection, the Attorney General shall review the denial and issue within ten (10) days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) a written decision to the agency concerned, stating whether the agency acted consistent with provisions of this Act. A copy of the decision shall also be sent by the Attorney General to the person who requested the record in question. The burden of proof in sustaining the action shall rest with the agency and the Attorney General may request additional documentation from the agency for substantiation. The Attorney General may also request a copy of the records involved but they shall not be disclosed.

(3) Each agency shall notify the Attorney General of any actions filed against that agency in circuit court regarding the enforcement of this Act.

(4) In the event a person feels the intent of this Act is being subverted by an agency short of denial of inspection, including but not limited to the imposition of excessive fees or the misdirection of the applicant, the person may complain in writing to the Attorney General and the complaint shall be subject to the same adjudicatory process as if the record had been denied.

(5) If the Attorney General upholds, in whole or in part, the request for inspection, the public agency involved may institute proceedings within thirty (30) days for injunctive or declaratory relief in the circuit court of the district where the public record is maintained. If the Attorney General disallows the request or if the public agency continues to withhold the record notwithstanding the decision of the Attorney General, the person seeking disclosure may institute such proceedings.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

(1) The circuit courts of this state shall have jurisdiction to enforce the purposes of this Act, by injunction or other appropriate order on application of any citizen of this state.

(2) In order for the circuit courts of this state to exercise their jurisdiction to enforce the purposes of this Act, it shall not be necessary to have forwarded any request for the documents to the Attorney General pursuant to Section 6, above, or for the Attorney General to have acted in any manner upon a request for his opinion.

(3) In any such action, the court shall determine the matter de novo and the burden of proof shall be on the public agency to sustain its action. The court on its own motion, or on motion of either of the parties, may view the records in controversy in camera before reaching a decision. Any noncompliance with the order of the court may be punished as contempt of court.

(4) Courts shall take into consideration the basic policy of this Act that free and open examination of public records is in the public interest and the exemptions provided for by this Act or otherwise provided for by law shall be strictly construed, even though such examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment to public officials or others. Except as to causes the court considers of greater importance, proceeding arising under this section take precedent on the docket over all other causes and shall be assigned for hearing and trial at the earliest practicable date.

(5) Any person who prevails against an agency in any action in the courts seeking the right to inspect and copy any public record shall be awarded all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in connection with such legal action. If such person prevails in part, the court may in its discretion award him costs or an appropriate portion thereof. In addition, it shall be within the discretion of the court to award such person an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) for each day that he was denied the right to inspect or copy said public record.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

The Attorney General shall submit an annual report on or before September 1 to cover the preceding fiscal year to the Legislative Research Commission for referral to the appropriate committee. The report shall include:

(1) A compilation of the determinations made by agencies to deny inspection of records.

(2) A list of decisions issued by the Attorney General in regard to open records issues and the substance of the decision in each case.

(3) A list of court actions involving the enforcement of this Act.

Any person shall have access, to any public record maintained on him or in which he is mentioned by name, upon presentation of appropriate identification.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 61 is created to read as follows:

Any official of a public agency who violates the provisions of this Act shall be subject to dismissal or impeachment and in addition shall be guilty of a class B misdemeanor for each separate violation.

Section 11. KRS 171.650 is repealed.

However, refusal under this section must be sustained by clear and convincing evidence.

SECTION 3. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 61 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

This exemption shall not, however apply to records the disclosure or publication of which is directed by other statute.

(c) Public records pertaining to a prospective location of a business or industry where no previous public disclosure has been made of the business' or industry's interest in locating in, relocating within or expanding within the Commonwealth. (4) The provisions of this section shall in no way prohibit or limit the exchange of public records or the sharing of information between public agencies when the exchange is serving a legitimate governmental need or is necessary in the performance of a legitimate government function.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 61 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Each public agency, upon any request for records made under this Act, shall determine within three (3) days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) after the receipt of any such request whether to comply with the request and shall notify in writing the person making the request, within the three (3) day period, of its decision. (1) The requirements for applicants for a broker's license shall be increased as follows. If such instruction is not successfully completed within two (2) years, his license shall not be renewed on renewal date. The commission shall notify the broker with whom such salesman is associated, thirty (30) days prior to the renewal date, that such salesman's license will not be renewed. If the member has prior service in more than one system, he must obtain at least twelve (12) months' current service in each system in which he has prior service in order to validate such prior service in each system for purposes of determining consolidated benefits under this section. Upon the determination of benefits each system shall pay the applicable percentage of total benefits.

When such an election is made, the agency employing the member shall withhold employe contributions, make employer contributions and remit these contributions to the system in which the member retained his membership.

(4)(a) Prior to July 1, 1976 a A person entering the service of an employer participating in the Kentucky employes retirement system or the county employes retirement system with service credit in the teachers' retirement system and who desires to retain membership in the teachers' retirement system, and who is permitted by that system to continue is hereby exempt from participating in the Kentucky employes retirement system or the county employes retirement system.

Representative B. Richardson moved the adoption of the following Floor Amendment No. 1 to HB 568:

Amend printed copy of HB 568, page 4, after line 6, by adding the following words:

"Section 4. KRS 342.730 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Income benefits for disability shall be paid to the employe as follows, subject to the maximum and minimum limits specified in KRS 342.740:

(a) For total disability, 55 per cent of his average weekly wage during such disability, and two and one-half per cent of his average weekly wage for each dependent up to a maximum of three.

(b) In all other cases of permanent partial disability, including any disfigurement which will impair the future usefulness or occupational opportunities of the injured employe, or employe disabled by an occupational disease, compensation shall be determined according to the percentage of disability, taking into account, among other things, any previous disability, the nature of the physical injury or disfigurement, the occupation of the injured employe and age at the time of injury or at the time the disability from an occupational disease began. The compensation paid therefor shall be 55 per cent of the average weekly earnings of the employe at the time of his injury and two and one-half per cent of his average weekly wage at the time of injury for each dependent up to a maximum of three, subject to the limitations contained in KRS 342.740, multiplied by the percentage of disability caused by the injury or occupational disease; provided, however, that such compensation shall not exceed the maximum weekly benefits as provided in KRS 342.740 multiplied by the percentage of disability caused by the injury or occupational disease, nor shall such compensation be less than the minimum weekly benefits as provided in KRS 342.740 multiplied by the percentage of disability caused by the injury or occupational disease; provided further, however, the individual entitled to benefits under permanent partial disability shall be entitled to compensation based on lost wages or body functional disability benefits, whichever is greater.

(c) For total permanent bodily loss or losses herein scheduled, after and in addition to the income benefits payable during the period of recovery, scheduled income benefits in the amount of 55 per cent of the average weekly wage as follows:

BODILY LOSS	WEEKS OF DISABILITY
1. Arm	340
2. Leg	340
3. Hand	312
4. Foot	216
5. Thumb	86
6. Index Finger	54
7. Middle Finger	43
8. Ring Finger	22
9. Little Finger	16
10. Great Toe	30
11. Second Toe	20
12. Third Toe	15
13. Fourth Toe	8
14. Fifth Toe	5
15. Total loss of binaural hearing	156
16. Total loss of vision of one eye	150
17. Total loss of bilateral vision	520
18. Total loss, or total loss of use, of both hands, both arms, both feet or both legs	520

19. Phalanges: For loss of distal phalanx, one-half of the income benefits for loss of the entire digit. For loss of more than the distal phalanx of a digit, the same as loss of the entire digit.

20. Two or more digits: For loss of two or more digits, or one or more phalanges of two or more digits, of a hand or foot, scheduled income benefits may be proportioned to the loss of use of the hand or foot occasioned thereby, but shall not exceed the scheduled income benefits for loss of a hand or foot.

21. Total loss of use: Scheduled income benefits for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

22. Partial loss or partial loss of use: Scheduled income benefits for permanent partial loss of use of a member shall be for a period proportionate to the period benefits are payable for total loss or total loss of use of the member as such partial loss bears to total loss.

23. Loss of hearing or partial loss of bilateral vision: Scheduled income benefits for partial loss of vision in one or both eyes, or total loss of hearing in one ear, or partial loss of hearing in one or both ears shall be for a period proportionate to the period benefits are payable for total bilateral loss of vision or total binaural loss of hearing as such partial loss bears to total loss. The provisions of paragraphs (d) to (h) of subsection (2) of this section shall apply to scheduled losses of hearing.

24. In any case in which there shall be a loss or loss of use of more than one member or parts of more than one member set forth in subparagraphs 1. to 23. of this subsection, scheduled income benefits shall be for the loss of use of each such member or part thereof, with the periods of benefits to run consecutively.

25. Other losses: Proper and equitable scheduled income benefits shall be paid for serious permanent disfigurement of face, head, neck or other area normally exposed and for loss or loss of function of a major member or organ when such disfigurement or loss is of a kind likely to handicap the employe in securing or holding employment.

26. In any case of total or partial loss of use of a member or organ, of hearing or vision, or in any case of disfigurement, determination of the period for which scheduled income benefits are payable shall not be made until the maximum of healing and of restoration function has been attained.

27. If the effects of any of the injuries, or disabilities, from occupational diseases, or losses, mentioned in this section adversely affect a workman's ability to labor, or limit his occupational opportunities to obtain the kind of work he is customarily able to do; his compensation benefits shall not be limited to the amounts provided by this section, and he shall be awarded compensation benefits under some other applicable or appropriate section of this chapter which would provide more compensation benefits for his disability.

(2) Occupational deafness means permanent partial or permanent total loss of hearing of one or both ears caused by prolonged exposure to harmful noise in employment. The following provisions shall apply exclusively to loss of hearing compensable under this subsection:

(a) No claim for scheduled income benefits shall be heard until the lapse of six full consecutive calendar months after the termination of exposure to harmful noise in employment. The time limitation for the filing of claims for occupational deafness shall not begin to run earlier than the day following the termination date of such six months' period. The time for filing claim as provided under this paragraph shall be applicable not only in respect of the last employer, but also in respect of any prior employer who may have liability to pay compensation for the occupational deafness.

(b) No employer shall be liable for the payment of scheduled income benefits for occupational deafness unless the employe claiming benefits shall have worked for such employer in employment exposing the employe to harmful noise for a total period of at least 90 days.

(c) An employer, otherwise liable under this subsection, whose employment has contributed to any extent to an employe's occupational deafness shall be liable for the full extent of the deafness of the employe, unless such employer shall establish by competent evidence (including the results of a professionally controlled hearing test) the extent of the employe's deafness as it existed prior to exposure to harmful noise in the employer's employment. Upon such showing the employer shall be liable to the employe only for the proportion of the deafness attributable to employment by him. An employer liable to the employe for the full extent of the employe's occupational deafness may implead, in a compensation proceeding on the employe's claim, any prior employer or employers in whose employment the employe had been exposed to harmful noise, and if it should be found that the impleaded employer would have been liable to the employe under this subsection, had the employe proceeded against him, under the claim being adjudicated, the employer held liable shall be entitled to an award against the impleaded employer. The impleading of an employer shall be accomplished by notice on a form prescribed by the board. Such notice shall be sent to the impleaded employer and to the board. An award may be made in favor of the employer liable to the employe, and against the impleaded employer or employers, which award may be enforced in the same manner as awards to employes. The impleaded employer or employers shall bear equal shares with the employer of the employer's liability to the employe, unless the evidence warrants a different apportionment.

(d) Losses of hearing due to industrial noise for compensation purposes shall be confined to the frequencies of 500, 1,000, and 2,000 cycles per second. Loss of hearing ability for frequency tones above 2,000 cycles per second are not to be considered as constituting disability for hearing.

(e) The percent of hearing loss, for purposes of the determination of compensation claims for occupational deafness, shall be calculated as the average, in decibels, of the thresholds of hearing for the frequencies of 500, 1,000, and 2,000 cycles per second. Pure tone air conduction audiometric instruments, approved by nationally recognized authorities in this field, shall be used for measuring hearing loss. If the losses of hearing average 15 decibels or less in the three frequencies, such losses of hearing shall not then constitute any compensable hearing disability. If the losses of hearing average 82 decibels or more in the three frequencies, then the same shall constitute and be a total or 100 percent compensable hearing loss.

(f) In measuring hearing impairment, the lowest measured losses in each of the three frequencies shall be added together and divided by three to determine the average decibel loss. For every decibel of loss exceeding 15 decibels an allowance of one and one-half percent shall be made up to the maximum of 100 percent which is reached at 82 decibels.

(g) In determining the binaural percentage of loss, the percentage of impairment in the better ear shall be multiplied by five. The resulting figure shall be added to the percentage of impairment in the poorer ear and the sum of the two divided by six. The final percentage shall represent the binaural hearing impairment.

(h) Before determining the percentage of hearing impairment, in order to allow for the average amount of hearing loss from non-occupational causes found in the population at any given age, there shall be deducted from the total average decibel loss, one-half decibel for each year of the employe's age over 40 at the time of last exposure to industrial noise.

(i) No consideration shall be given to the question of whether or not the ability of an employe to understand speech is improved by the use of a hearing aid.

(3) The period of any scheduled income benefits payable under this section on account of any injury shall be reduced by the period of income benefits paid or payable under this chapter on account of a prior injury if scheduled income benefits in both cases are for disability of the same member or function, or different parts of the same member or function, and the scheduled income benefits payable on account of the subsequent disability in whole or in part would duplicate the scheduled income benefits payable on account of the pre-existing disability.

(4) When an employe, who has sustained disability compensable under this section, and who has filed a valid claim in his lifetime, dies from causes other than the injury before the expiration of the compensable period specified, the income benefits specified and unpaid at the individual's death, whether or not accrued or due at his death, shall be paid, under an award made before or after such death, for the period specified in this section, to and for the benefit of the persons within the classes at the time of death and in the proportions and upon the conditions specified in this section and in the order named:

(a) To the widow or widower, if there is no child under the age of 18 or incapable of self-support; or

(b) If there are both such a widow or widower and such a child or children one-half to such widow or widower and the other half to such child or children; or

(c) If there is no such widow or widower but such a child or children, then to such child or children; or

(d) If there is no survivor in the above classes, then the parent or parents wholly or partly actually dependent for support upon the decedent, or to other wholly or partly actually dependent relatives listed in paragraph (g) of subsection (1) of KRS 342.750 or to both, in such proportions as the board may provide by regulation."
